

CUS Congress wasn't all discussion . . .

NATURE WINS OUT
... as high temperatures prompt delegates' swimming party

SU VICE-PRESIDENT LIZ LAW
... shopped for more than just new political styles

"ACTION" AGAINST U.S. COAST GUARD
... results in stickers plastered on gunwales

SORRY DAVID
... but we just couldn't resist it either
(see student handbook)

U of A dance club

- registration Sept. 15-19th
- booth in SUB (main floor)
- membership $5
- watch for posters for times
- classes start Sept. 29th

Delegates to the 33rd CUS Congress skinny-dipped, pasted anti-American stickers on a coast guard cutter, talked interminably and sometimes intelligently. It was all part of the action outside chores like a 17-hour plenary.
