

12 complete home nurse course

The successful completion of a 12-week course in home nursing was marked by a graduation June 20, at the Red Cross office, 15 Hurontario st. in Port Credit.

Twelve graduates were presented with certificates and pins by Mrs. Pappin from Ontario Division Red Cross headquarters. Mrs. C. T. Sni-dal, president of the Mississauga Red Cross, chaired the meeting.

The home nursing course, which dealt with the care of the sick and elderly in the home, was taught by Mrs. K. A. Rowe, R. N.

Teachers from Cooksville Public School gathered with their spouses and friends for an end-of-year barbecue at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Yeo, 1094 Balment dr., Port Credit.

Because some teachers will not return in September the party was one way of saying goodbye.

Reverend and Mrs. Michael Beacom, 3141 Jaguar Valley dr., are leaving Mississauga at the end of the month for Manitowadge, a mining community in northwestern Ontario. Rev. Beacom will assume the duties of pastor for the United Church there.

Mrs. Beacom will be missed by her kindergarten pupils at Cooksville public school where she has taught for the past three years.

"Peter Rabbit" came to life for 50 children at the Mississauga Central Library, Saturday, June 22, when Mrs. M. Capstick brought two rabbits to share the story. The children were thrilled at the opportunity to actually pet the animals.

This was the final story hour until September.

Athletics were the rule at Cooksville public school June 20 and 24, during the primary and senior field days.

Thursday June 20 the children from the primary grades competed in such events as relay races, high and broad jumps, "dog and bone" and skipping. Winning with 24 points was the team of Doug Bagnall (captain), John Leclair, Denise Duchart, Sharon Forrest, David Smyth, Sarah Hanna and Cheryl Robinson.

Tied for second with 22 points were the teams of captains Wayne Morgan and April Murphy. The third place teams, tied with 21 points apiece, were captained by Barbara McClinton and Nancy Leclair.

The Senior events were held Monday, June 2

Gail Hooley was the winner of the Grade 8 Rotary award. Other winners were: junior girls champion, Charmaine Mather; Junior boys champion, Michael Crispe; senior girls champion, Laurel Robbins; senior boys champion, Donald Gillespie.

Members of Cooksville United church who urgently need the services of a minister during the last two weeks in July are requested to call Rev. D. Bell, 625-2336. The first three weeks in August telephone Rev. W. Rogers, 277-4837 or 826-2977.

Eighteen pupils from the Grade 8 class at Cooksville public school celebrated end of school and end of their years in public school, with a party at the home of Debbie Dembie, Streetsville, Friday, June 21.

The class had planned a picnic at Albion Hills Conservation Area but rainy weather forced them to change their plans.

It did not dampen their spirits, however; all the children enjoyed themselves immensely.

Lynwood church loses organist

Mrs. Arnold Bates has concluded her work as organist and choir leader at Lynwood United church. She took over in Dec. 1964, when she consented to be acting organist. This was shortly before the new Sanctuary was opened for services.

Church school closing Sunday at Lynwood United church occasioned promotion certificates and recognitions for attendance achievements, presented by John Rose and departmental superintendents. Mr. Rose shared with Rev. Gordon Lapp in conducting the services.
