Mr. Assiniboia
July 31/30

Dear Mr. Meighen,

I am sorry I had to leave the East sooner than I expected and hence did not see you. I wanted to discuss particularly the matter I wrote you about last week - the addition of a number of reasonable Liberals to our group in the House. I am now convinced, as you advised them, that in view of the circumstances this is the course to take. If 7 or more will join this I shall reorganize the Cabinet, say, at the close of the copying session and include 10 or 2 Liberals making a "truly" Co-operative "Govt." The United F. and Labor have decided to fight the next election and this
