

- 2 -

Post-war Plans - Numerous observers mention pessimism and anxiety among war workers as to their future prospects, and relate these attitudes to current labor unrest. Doubts as to whether the Government has any real plans to prevent unemployment are reported, and correspondents are urging the release of some official statement in the interests of civilian morale.

A. D. P. Heaney,
Secretary.

Privy Council Office,
November 9th, 1943.

Minutes and Documents of the Cabinet War Committee,
Volume XIV, September - December 1943,
(R.G. 2, 7c, Volume 14)

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA