Ottawa, March 5, 1918.

Rev. Sir,-

In reference to previous correspondence in regard to securing a teacher for the Christian Island Indian Day School I beg to say that the Department is advised by Mr. Agent Picotte that Robert Marsden will take charge of the school in a few days and will stay until another teacher is secured. The Agent also states that Mr. Marsden wants another teacher secured as soon as possible.

The Department would like you, therefore, to take the necessary steps to secure a suitable teacher for this school.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
