

after spending the evening in the cafe?

A. He was sober.

Q. Did you hear Cpl. McIntyre shout as he went along the street?

A. Not till he hollered to Tryansky.

Q. Did you hear Tryansky answer?

A. From the right hand side he yelled, behind us, sir.

Q. What happened after that?

A. Cpl. McIntyre started to cross the road to meet Pte. Tryansky.

I waited on the curb on the left hand side of the road for Cpl. Lowe to catch up to me. Cpl McIntyre got to between 5 or 6 feet ahead of me going across the road.

Q. What did you do?

A. Cpl. Lowe was just about up to me and I started to follow McIntyre across.

Q. Did you look up the street in a Northerly direction?

A. Just as I stepped off the curb I looked to my right.

Q. What did you see?

A. I saw the headlights of an approaching car.

Q. Can you form an opinion as to the speed of the car?

A. No, sir.

Q. How far away when you first saw it.

A. The other side of Chausse du Waterloo.

Q. What happened after that?

A. Cpl. McIntyre was by the left front fender of the parked vehicle. Myself, I was just about at the crown of the road, when the vehicle that I had seen approaching was right on top of me.

Q. On what side of the road was this vehicle travelling?

A. He seemed to be hugging the right hand side closely.

Q. What speed?

A. Approximately 60-65 m.p.h.

Q. What about the lights of the vehicle?

A. The lights seemed to be in a very good condition and quite bright.

Q. Did you observe the vehicle which was parked on the right side of the road.

A. Yes, sir.
