

REV. W. EVANS.

"I am weakness itself; but I am on the Rock. I do not experience those transports that some have expressed in the view of death; but my dependence is on the mercy of God in Christ. Here my religion began, and here it must end."

WILLIAM HUNTER. A.D. 1555.

(The Martyr.)

Said the sheriff: "If thou wilt recant, thou shalt live; if not, thou shalt be burned!" "I will not recant, God willing," was the reply. He then prayed, "Son of God, shine upon me;" and in the end, "Lord, Lord, receive my spirit!"

LATIMER. A.D. 1555.

"Be of good comfort, Master Ridley, and play the man! We shall this day light such a candle, by God's grace, in England, as, I trust, shall never be put out!" After this he cried, "O Father of Heaven, receive my soul!"
