Synopsis of Canadian North - West.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

ANY even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 8 and 20, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Entry must be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land is situated.

The homesteader is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2) If the father for mother, if the father is deceased, of the homesteader resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for, the requirements as to residence may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Six months' notice in writing should be given to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of intention to apply for patent.

W. W. CORY.

Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.

This Company offers insurance to a separate class to total abstainers—thus giving them all the advantage their superior longevity entitles them to. Its security is unquestionable, its ratio of assets to liabilities is unsurpassed in Canada, save by one Company (much older).

—I added a greater proportion to its surplus last year than any other.

"There is No Excuse" wrote recently one of the best-known literary women in New England, "for this continent miss understanding the other, so long as it reads 'Littell's.'" One important mission of still affectionately known to many of its readers as "Littell's," from the name of its founder, is to acquaint American readers with the course of English thought and European affairs. This is done by reprinting without abridgment the most important and interesting features of the leading English periodicals.

Published weekly at Boston.—More than 3,300 pages each year.—Annual subscription post-paid, six dollars.—Trial subscription, three months, one dollar.—New subscribers, who subscribe now for the year 1907 will receive free the remaining numbers of 1906.
