

Mr. Frowde announces a tremendous demand for
TWO NOTABLE BOOKS
BY
TWO CANADIAN WRITERS
and one by DR. GRENFELL

ROBERT E. KNOWLES

"The Singer of the Kootenay."

"It is a clever piece of tale telling."—MON-TREAL HERALD.

"Mr. Knowles is growing in power as a character delineator. The queer mixture of humanity to be found in a new country or locality is suggested by the diversion of types presented in his pages, and the picture given of the life in such a community is no doubt accurately drawn. It is a satisfaction to add that the 'Singer of the Kootenay' has an ending that leaves a sweet taste in the mouth, and one that presents a Canadian counterpart to the stories of human redemption chronicled in 'Twice-born Men.'"—TORONTO GLOBE.

"The novel brims with human sympathy and it is this quality that will make its strongest appeal."—BOSTON TRANSCRIPT.

The scene of action for Mr. Knowles' latest novel is in the Crow's Nest Pass of the Kootenay Mountains of British Columbia. The author has been aptly called "the Ian MacLaren of Canada," and with each succeeding story, since "St. Cuthbert's," he has perfected his literary form and increased his popularity. Cloth, net $1.25.

NORMAN DUNCAN

"The Measure of a Man." A Tale of the Big Woods.

"Since the days when the clergy sat below the salt—perhaps before—they have figured much in novels. Indeed their status among men might easily be traced in the fiction of each period. The 'Sky Pilot' is a type born within the present generation and his stalwart work among rough miners and woodsmen has been celebrated by several writers, the latest good example being 'The Measure of a Man,'

"It is a capital story. Mr. Duncan's play of humor and pathos in the incidents of making the first funeral at Swamp's End and of finding a father for the stray baby are delightful reading. Undue sentimentality rarely mars the progress of the parson's labors. The reader is able to believe him a man among men."—BOSTON TRANSCRIPT.

Extract from letter to Mr. Norman Duncan:—

"I have read 'The Measure of a Man' with gladness. It is a good measure of a real man. So thank you again."—HENRY VAN DYKE.

"The Measure of a Man" is Mr. Duncan's first full-sized novel having a distinct motif and purpose since "Dr. Luke of the Labrador." His latest work is that same inimitable style that has given Mr. Duncan's writings such high rank in literature as to compare his works with the classics of Dickens and Stevenson. Illustrated, net $1.25.

"DOWN NORTH ON THE LABRADOR"

Wilfred T. Grenfell, M.D.

A new collection of Labrador yarns by the man who has succeeded in making isolated Labrador a part of the known world. Like its predecessor the new volume, while confined exclusively to facts in Dr. Grenfell's daily life, is full of romance, adventure and excitement. Illustrated, net $1.00.
