Begs to announce that he has constantly on hand a stock of over One Hundred Thousand Volumes in the various branches of literature, including the largest and choicest gathering of RARE CANADIAN BOOKS to be found on sale in the Dominion. This department is especially full and complete, in fact there are very few items of Canadiana — no matter how rare — which have not passed through our hands at some time. In standard lines we offer many bargains, the following being only a sample:—

Cape Breton Illustrated: An Historic, Picturesque, and Descriptive Monograph. By John M. Gow. Profusely illustrated. A large and handsome volume, 423 pages, bound in cloth, gilt extra (pub. at $3.00), 75c. Toronto, 1893.

Soldiering in Canada: Recollections and Experiences, 1848-98. By Lieut. Col. George T. Denison. Illustrated. A fine volume, 375 pages, cloth gilt (pub. $2.00), 75c. Toronto, 1901.

United Empire Loyalists — The Centennial of the Settlement of Upper Canada by the U. E. Loyalists, 1784-1884. Published by the Centennial Committee. 334 pages, cloth gilt, 75c. Toronto, 1885.

The People of the Long House: A History of the Six Nations Indians. By E. M. Chadwick. Fully illustrated. A handsome volume, bound in cloth, gilt extra, showing the peace and war colors, in a box, $1.00. Toronto, 1897.

Our North Land: Being a Full Account of the Canadian North-West and the Hudson's Bay route. Fully illustrated. A large and handsome volume, 589 pages, bound in cloth gilt (pub. $4.00), 75c. Toronto, 1885.

First Things in Canada: An Alphabetical Reference List of Canadian Events. By George Johnson. 215 pages, cloth gilt (pub. $1.00), 25c. Ottawa, 1897.

We have recently issued two Catalogues of Canadian Books — one a SPECIAL BARGAIN LIST, the other containing a selection of rare and out-of-print items. Send for them if you are interested, and send us your list of wants.
