

THE GRAIN GROWERS' GUIDE

ORGANIZATION · EDUCATION · CO-OPERATION

"This association of poverty with progress is the great enigma of our times. . . . It is the riddle which the Sphinx of Fate puts to our civilization, and which not to answer, is to be destroyed."

—Henry George.

The Statuette from which this photograph was taken is the work of Miss Ella Buchanan, a Kansas student sculpture under Charles J. Mulligan, at the Art Institute, Chicago—she whose "Votes for Women" is attracting deserved attention. The idea is to symbolize the great agitational work of Henry George.
