

There are dozens of pictures on your farm well worth having and we have a booklet

The Kodak on the Farm

that will show how to make them easily, surely and at little expense. The booklet is free.

Photographs of stock you want to sell will certainly interest a buyer more quickly than will mere written descriptions. Photographs will also serve to record the condition of your feeders from month to month, as well as afford accurate comparisons on your crops under different methods of cultivation.

The there is the pleasure of making pictures of YOUR farm-that's worth while.

Get your booklet next time you're in town.

THE CORNER HARDWARE.

LIVE STOCK MARKETS TORONTO.

With receipts of 2531 cattle, the supplies were much lighter than a week ago and with few good cattle offering, the market was strong and demand good for choice butchers, heavy weight steers and good feeders, and briefly summariz ed, the market was from 25c to 75c, and in the mind of some excellent judges, $1.00 higher, and would average up around 50c.

Milkers and springers are holding Mikers and springers are nothing steady and the prospects all round are much more favorable than week ago.

The lamb market was steady, choice lambs selling from 14½c to 14½c; light, handy sheep, 92c to 10c, heavy fat sheep and bucks 8c to 9c.

Choice calves sold from 16½c to 17c; medium, 12c to 14c; grassers and com-mon calves, 6c to 7½c. The market for choice calves was off 50c, sheep steady ni lambs steady. There was a heavy run of hogs, 5023 all told, but the price held steady at 181c fed and watered; 183c weighed off, and $17.50 to $17.70 f.o.b,

The packers are quoting 50c off for the balance of the week, and the market olosed weak.
