After the usual business was gone through with, the ladies provided an excellent lunch which was done ample justice to. After which a grand programme was gone through with. When the roads get good, the lodge expect to repay the visit.

Two swells, hailing from Gorrie, paid Fordwich a visit last week and for a while made things lively with some of the Fordwich boys. They displayed some pugilistic tact, but one good feature in the case of the many collisions that took place was that no one was seriously hurt.

Mrs. Strathy has decided to go into to hear him. the millinery business this spring.

Mr. A. C Southern, received two carloads of binders and seed drills this week for delivery to the farmers to whom he had already sold them. Mr. S. is a decided success as an agricultural implement agent, as he is at everything else.

The Secretary of the Fordwich Bible Society, Mr. Thos Goggin, this week forwarded to head-quarters the hand some sum of $69.91, $36.29 of it being free contributions and the balance being on account of sales at the depository.

The drug store has been removed into neat quarters one door north of the hardware store. Darby Bros. are fitting up their store with fine effect, utilizing Store. the space gained by a fine display of their stoves, etc., and are fitting up a handsome tinsmithing department at the rear. The Masons are to take possession of their elegent new hall on April 1st. They intend to add a lot of new furniture and otherwise beautify the premises. A new bakery is to be started here soon, we understand.

The band boys are well pleased with their present quarters and receive the best of treatment all round, so cannot see the drift of your last week's corres pondence's remarks about them.

An old gentleman recently went to visit a well-to-do son out west, who went from less than a thousand miles from here a few years ago. Notwithstanding the fact that the father worked and made considerable improvements upon his boys premises the son charged the old gentleman a good, round board bill. The question is: is this son stingier back of his neck as a collar button!

As to the $5.00 business, I thought it ings had been gone through with, the tables were removed from the dining hall and the young people present began to trip the light fantastic to the very melodious strains of music which was knew it was not there. If we were similarly disposed we would offer $5.00 "The brigade turned out to the call of furnished by Mr. Wm Fryfokle and similarly disposed we would offer $5.00 Misson Fodie and The bar of the similarly disposed we would offer $5.00 Misses Eadie and Tucker. Pleasing to Mr. Osborne if he would find us a command to admit women to the Sacra ment of the Lord's Supper or to change the Sabbath from the last to the first day in the week. And yet he would not refuse to give his fair parishioners the elements which represent his Lord's body and blood or split his wood on Sunday, why ? And yet he would try to unsettle the minds of other young christians by throwing out the challenge above referred to, trying to make it appear that because no mention is made of it in the bible therefore there is no authority. Why did he not like a man tell the people that as far as biblical authority goes "Infant Baptism" stands on an equal footing with the giving of the Sacrament to women or keeping the Sabbath on Sunday. But dealing in inuendoes and cheap challenges are more to his purpose As I said before, I am not posted but
