ARMY LAUNCH BIG DRIVE FOR ONE MILLION

The Salvation Army is about to launch a campaign to raise One Million Dollars for war and demobilization purposes.

The money-getting campaign will be from January 19 to 25.

The Duke of Devonshire, Governor-General of Canada; Sir Robert Borden, Sir William Hearst, Sir Wilfred Laurier, and many other prominent citizens have endorsed the scheme, and strong committees have been formed for the purpose of boosting the objective.

The Salvation Army intends to use the money for three purposes: (1) To establish hostels for returned soldiers who are discharged and in need until they are absorbed into industrial life.

(2) To provide emergency receiving and maternity homes for soldiers' wives, widows, and dependent children in need.

(3) To continue during demobilization in England and France the equipments and comforts already provided by the Salvation Army for the Canadian soldiers overseas.

A DEAD BOCHE

To you who'd read my Songs of War And only hear of blood and fame, I'll say (you've heard it said before) "War's Hell!" and if you doubt the same,

To-day I found in Mametz Wood A certain cure for lust of blood:

Where, propped against a shattered trunk, In a great mess of things unclean, Sat a dead Boche; he scowled and stunk With clothes and face a sodden green;

Big-bellied, spectacled, crop-haired, Dribbling black blood from nose and beard.

CAPT. ROBERT GRAVES.

DECISION OF COURT IN CASE OF "CORINTHIAN"

St. John, N. B., Dec. 20.—That the master and first officer on the ill-fated C. P. O. S. liner Corinthian, which was wrecked on the northwest ledge off Brier Island on Saturday, Dec. 14, had permitted indifferent navigation was the verdict of Capt. L. A. Demers, dominion wreck commissioner, this morning. He pointed out that the circumstances freed the Bay of Fundy from any stigma or criticism, and in fixing the blame of the disaster he suspended the certificate of the master, David T. Tannock, for three months, and the first officer, B. B. Simpson, for six months. In a supplementary statement, Captain Demers said that he had heard rumors about the city that liquor had been responsible for the disaster, but wished to dispel that. He had carefully inquired into this during the proceedings and found that everything had been perfectly satisfactory. He fixed the loss of the vessel as a result of indifferent navigation.

THE FISHERIES

A Canadian whaling company on the Pacific coast reports a catch of 999 whales, or 126 more than in the preceding year. As compared with this, Norwegian whalers caught during the year ending August last 736 whales, the oil from which is valued at $1,800,000. As a result of the demand for whale meat a cannery has been established in British Columbia, from which over 1,000 tons have been shipped to Samoa and Fiji, while orders for 1,000 tons from the United States are in course of execution. In Newfoundland, as a result of the armistice, deliveries of codfish have been heavy. Fishermen, who were holding back for a rise of prices in the spring, in expectation of the war continuing, are selling their stocks as rapidly as the weather will permit. Big shipments of frozen fish are being made to Great Britain.

About three and a half million pounds of flat fish other than halibut from the Pacific coast have been sold in Canada since the Food Board first arranged for the sale of this class of fish in March 1918. The public has apparently developed an altogether unexpected appetite for such fish, thus providing a market for what was discarded by the fishermen as useless prior to the action of the Food Board.

Remember the color of my new store is bright red, can't miss it, and don't forget that I am making special prices on goods to introduce my new store to the public.

who on his 74th birthday successfully beat off an enemy submarine and was awarded the D.S.C. He also holds the O.B.E. for other war services.—The Times, London, Dec. 6.

* * * In December 1901 I sailed from Liverpool to the West Coast of Africa, calling at Las Palmas, Grand Canary Islands, in the Elder-Dampster steamer Bialfra, commanded by Captain W. S. Lobb, who is referred to in the above item from The Times. The Captain's present age is given as 75, so in 1910 he was 58, but he looked younger. He was a rough old skipper of the kind one meets (or used to meet) in the West African trade, and the voyage I made with him gave me an opportunity of studying a pronounced character of the old sea-dog type. Some day I may tell the story of that voyage and my stay of five months in West Africa which followed it, which constitutes one of the most interesting of my reminiscences. I may mention that of Norton Griffiths, was a fellow-passenger on the voyage, and I then first became acquainted with him, though we had both been in Rhodesia for several years before, but had never happened to meet there. He was, and is a pushful fellow who never hides his light under a bushel. He is now a Knight, a war-honor, I think, lightly earned; but Max Aitken, was made a Baron! Sir John Norton Griffiths is known in St. John where I think the Baron is also remembered.—W. B.
