Wasteful Exploitation of Land a Nation's Crime

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 19.—The second day's session of the annual meeting of the Commission of Conservation was devoted to a technical study of the several national problems outlined in the inaugural address of Hon. Clifford Sifton of the preceding day. Experts from all parts of the country were called to shed light on the problems which the president had disclosed in epitome.

Dr. E. E. Fernald, dean of the Faculty of Forestry in the University of Toronto, made a detailed analysis of forestation conditions in the principal European countries and especially in his native land.

Dr. J. W. Robertson, C.M.G., of McDonald College, gave address on "The Conservation of Agricultural Resources." He stated that wasteful exploitation of agricultural land was among the greatest of a nation's crimes.

Dr. Eugene Hazard, director of Mines, enumerated a number of possible economies in the production of minerals in Canada. Among the chief economies suggested were the erection of electric smelters to utilize low grade ores found in Canada, the development of the peat industry, and the use of gas instead of the importation of such vast quantities of coal, the employment of better methods of coal mining to avert waste.

Dr. P. H. Bryce, chief medical inspector of the department of immigration, briefly discussed some measures for the maintenance and improvement of public health. His basic assumption was that science can now keep the record of a densely populated city in as fine a physical condition as the nomad. Dr. Bryce named several specialists in public health, viz. public health, school inspection for children, rigorous methods to stop the pollution of rivers, common sense treatment of the tuberculosis problem and greater care to prevent railway and industrial accidents.

Hon. Mr. Oliver Introduces His Immigration Bill

OTTAWA, Jan. 19.—Three government bills were added to the agenda before parliament at today's session of the Commons. Hon. Mr. Oliver introduced the immigration bill, over from last session. As re-introduced today the bill contains several additional features which, however, do not touch the principle of last year's bill but are designed to further facilitate the application of the restrictions now in force relating to the exclusion of undesirable. The present regulations applying to immigrants entering Canada are extended in the bill to apply also to all immigrants coming from the United States and specific means are provided for the enforcement of these regulations. There are, however, no radical changes proposed to the present administration of the government's immigration policy. The two chief causes of the bill are those providing for the appointment of a board of equity by the later whether special cases arise requiring an investigation into the admission of particular immigrants and also providing that no person entering the country shall have the right of appeal to the immigration officers.

Hon. Mr. Lemieux introduced a government bill giving the rates and the facilities of ocean cable companies under the control of the board of railway commissioners. He did not enter into any detailed explanation of the bill beyond the general statement of the underlying principle, as has already been published. The cable companies, he said, would be given four months after the passing of the bill in which to file their tariffs with the commission for approval or revision. If necessary this time could be extended for one year. The bill was supplemented by another bill applying the same principle to the land end of the cable business as handled by the telegraph companies.

Hon. Dr. Pugsley introduced a bill to amend the navigable waters protection act. It provides in brief, that wherever wharves or other structures are undertaken in navigable waters, they must be constructed according to plans submitted for approval to the minister of public works.

Replying to Mr. Foster, the Minister of the Interior stated that South African veteran scrips have been issued to the number of 6,675 covering 2,218,350 acres. Of this 579,300 acres have been taken up and 2,740 land certificates have been issued.

CROSS, SLEEPLESS BABIES ARE SICKLY BABIES

When little ones are sleepless and cross it is a sure sign that they are not well. Probably the little stomach or the bowels are out of order, or the child may be suffering from teething troubles. Give Baby's Own Tablets and see how quickly the child grows well and happy and sleeps soundly—no more the drugged sleep of "soothing" medicine, but the natural sleep of health. Mrs. Edward Seward, Maskinonge, Que., says: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for indigestion and other troubles of childhood, and they always work like a charm. They always keep my little one well." Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
