Bright Addresses Were Delivered at Colborne Street.

The Twentieth Annual conference of the Brantford District Epworth League held yesterday in the Col-borne Street Methodist church was a pronounced success. The afternoon sessions yesterday were full of inter-est and a solo by Miss Sweet was excellently rendered in splendid voice The roll call which was responded to by delegates, with reports from hearly every league in the district, showed that the work of the league was progressing on all sides. The membership had increased to an ex-tent well worthy of the cause and every branch reported a healthy conon of affairs.

President Shepperson announced himself, highly satisfied with the splendid results which were due to There are, fifteen different eagues in the district and as the have in the aggregate a large arm; of members it will be seen that the league is executing a great work in the Christian cause.

Miss Agnes Butler gave an illum inating address upon the junior work during the course of which she pointed out the great advantages which occured from being a worker in this branch of the work and outlined best to conduct this department She outlined how best to handle th juniors. PETROGRAD, Sunday, Oct. 4. via London, Oct. 5.—(2 p.m.)—In Russian military circles it is felt that the Russian general staff is now able to analyze and will be able to forestall, the intended German invasion of Russia.

In spite of the great importance of the eight day battle between General Rennenkampff on the Russian side, and General Von Hindenburg, on the German side, which has just come to an end and in which the Germans were not only not successful in crossing the River Niemen, according ing to reports here, but were driven back with heavy losses to the frontier, losing the entire pro-vince of Suwalki, excepting the town of that name it is opinion of Russian observers that the Germans intended this costly and futile demonstration to draw the Russian troops from East Poland as a premininary to their main

This, as revealed by the present fighting near Warsaw, was an attempt to take Warsaw and thence move to the southward to outflank the Russian army, which having occupied Galicia, is now moving through Bukowna into Hungary. "ENGLAND MUST BE CRUSHED

The Hamburger Fremdeblatt September 4th publishes the following article by Vice-Admiral Kirkoff "Let-us bear in mind, first an oremost that we have not merely to defeat our enemies in the East and West, but that we must defeat and crush absolutely the perfidious Alion, the most pernicious of all political enemies, whose policy for cen turies has been full of cunning and perfidy, subdue her to such an ex-tent that her influence all over the world will be broken for ever.

"To crush England is our main ask; to reduce her influence would be a blessing to the culture of the whole of the world. England must not be allowed to keep the influential position which she has held up to the present The first steps to harmful influence in every direction have already been taken, and there are a number of ways to destroy our pow erful opponent on the other side o the North Sea at any cost, ways, and means which need not all be taken simultaneously. The task is not an easy one, but it is a task worth all the sacrifices it will demand. "England must be crushed! But is this possible? Indeed it is! Never have lies, falsehood, and cunning during the years of peace been suc essful; never has the world seen s clearly what the so-called fair play of Old England really amounts to a at the present moment. It is as though at last the mask has been torn from the face of the hypocrite. Nobody need be in doubt as to what the state of the world would be in barbarons Russia, vain France, and bestial Servia and Belgium were to be victorious! But the heavy German and Austrian blows have de stroyed this phantom. STILL UNDER FIRE

LONDON, Oct. 7.—A despatch to the Times from Epernay, France, under date of October 3, states that the northwestern suburbs of Rheims are still under German shell fire, which is doing considerable damage. The shells apparently are intended for the French batteries in position just outside the town. "The panic among the inhabitants," the despatch says, "has been increased through the action of German aeroplanes, which are dropping bombs containing a high explosive in an attempt to destroy the railway station. So far this place has not been damaged, but refugees report that fourteen persons were killed by one of the bombs." STILL UNDER FIRE

It Helped Recruiting in Old Land

LONDON, Sept., 25 (Corres-ondence of Associated Press) —At the headuarters of the London recruiting offices, the authorities have compiled a chart which throws an interesting light on the physiology of recruiting. It covers a period between August 11 and ept. 7, when 51,094 men en-listed in London. It shows how recruiting remained at a daily average of 1,200 while the news from the front was not dicquieting; how it rose when the news was not so satisfactory and how it went up with a rush when the casualty list was announced.

On Monday, Aug 24, the news was "German advance all along the line" There were 1,481 recruits On Tuesday there was a further advance and the recruits went up to 1547 On Wednesday when it was announced that there were 2,000 casualties at Mons, the figures advanced to 1561. On Thursday, with report of the further retirement of the British troops, 2,000 recruits were added

By Saturday, the 29th, when the news was "British fight against tremendous odds," the total was raised to 2,000 for the day, and even on Sunday, usually a slack day, 1,250 men enlisted. But the following Monday, August 31, when photographs of the first British wounded were printed, recruits resonded with a rush and

4,001 men enlisted. Now that the War Office has had a chance to deal with the first 500,000 recruits for the new army, it is anticipated that before long the standard will be put back to the old level. At the London recruiting headquarters the names and addresses are being taken of thousands of men just under 5 feet, 6 inches, and they are being told to settle down for a few weeks and wait down for a few weeks and wait until they receive a telegram.

An official said it was not that the army did not want to 5 feet, s inch men, but recruiting had-to be damped down somehow to give the War Office a chance to deal with the men and it was decided that the simplest way was to raise the standard.
