215th All Showed up After Holiday

Friday Was Pay Day, Yet All the Men Remained Good Soldiers.

Illustrative of the splendid morale of the soldiers of Brantford, it was pointed out this morning at 215th headquarters that during the two holidays following immediately upon Friday, which was pay day, not a single member of the battalion had been arrested, a fact reflecting great credit upon the unit.

Capt. Duff Slemia left to-day for Winnipeg, accompanying his parents, Chief and Mrs. Slemia, and his brother, Lieut. Cliff Slemia of the 125th. No less than four applications for the presence of the 215th band at entertainments in the near future were received this morning by Capt. W. N. Andrews, chairman of the band committee, following upon the success achieved by the band at Port Dover on Saturday.

HONOR ROLL IS UNVEILED OF HEROES' NAMES

Riverdale Baptist Church Cherishes Records of the Khaki-clad Members.

COL. COLQUHOUN APPEALED FOR MEN

Captain Sweet Spoke of Glowing Future of Dominion of Canada.

Solemnized by an impressive service, as befitting the occasion, an honor roll of 31 names, members of the Riverdale Baptist church, who have enlisted for active service, was unveiled last evening at that church by Lt.-Col. Colquhoun of the 4th battalion. The attendance at the service was exceptionally large, all being imbued with the spirit of the event, and special music was rendered by the choir, including the most acceptable singing of the anthem, "The Lord Jehovah Reigns."

The names enrolled upon the roll of honor were read by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Richards, following which Lt.-Col. Colquhoun in a brief address paid high tribute to the patriotism of Riverdale church, and to the heroes who had gone from there to do battle for the right. He also noticed the appreciation experienced by the men at the front of the excellent work being done for them by the various women's patriotic associations, making at the same time an appeal for more letters to the front, as these the men value above any other gifts from home.

Lt.-Col. Colquhoun then unveiled the tablet containing the honor roll, after which Capt. Sweet, adjutant of the 215th battalion, delivered an interesting and forceful address, which contained an appeal for recruits immediately. Capt. Sweet outlined briefly the history of Canada, since Confederation, expressing confidence that in the future our Dominion would lead the continent of America. The speaker also touched upon the present day creed of the German nation, pointing out wherein it defied the tenets of Christianity.

The names contained upon the roll of honor are:—Albert Lewis, Henry Miller, Wm. Cressen, Harold Vasey, Geo. Ralph, Jno. Pennell, Ernest Walsh, Thos. Butler, Lawrence Neill, Carl Harp, Harold Madgwick, Jno. Dickie, Leo O'Heron, Ernest Aitken, Jno. Cook, Gordon Dean, Jno. Emmitt, Robt. Vasey, Daniel Lane, Howard Pinnell, Herb. Nordliffe, Bartley Fulcher, Jr., Geo. Diehl, Pat. Moore, Arthur Butler, Gordon O'Heron, Jas. Brown, Ben. Colwell, Ben. Nordliffe, Bartley Fulcher, Sr., Joe. Hurst.

Chaplain of 58th Battalion to Resume Again Duties in the City.

Jeakins would return to Brantford in September, resuming his duties as rector of St. Jude's. Capt. Jeakins left Brantford last June, as chaplain of the 58th Battalion, which unit he accompanied to the front, being later drafted to England, where he was engaged in Hospital work at the Epsom Military Hospital. His countless friends throughout the city will bear with great pleasure of Capt. Jeakins' impending return, and will unite in welcoming him back to Brantford.
