CHATHAM BREAKS JAIL

Was Locked up in Stratford for a Daring Burglary.

How he Escaped is a Mystery—Believed he was Assisted by a Confederate.

Special to The Planet.

Stratford, Ont., Aug. 24.—Last night a Chatham man under arrest for burglary, made a clever and mysterious escape from the cells here.

James is said to be a very bad man. Chief McCarthy has now, in from a far quiet yesterday morning, when a telephone message came that the house of Mr. George Sykes, Brunswick street, had been broken into and burglarized.

The chief was hungry, but he gobbled his dinner and got on the trail. He found that a window had been lifted in the morning, while Mr. and Mrs. Sykes were down town, and through this had passed and repassed some person of burglarious intent. On the return journey the interloper had been the richer by a gold watch. The man of the law made divers inquiries and found at length that a man and boy had been in the neighborhood together. He also found that burglars had visited Conductor Richard Gordon's house on Milton street and there breaking a window, appropriated the genial conductor's boots, revolver, and some other private property. By the same token, it is thought that the burglar is wearing those boots even now.

Chief McCarthy hid him to the neighborhood of the G. T. R. depot and looked around in that vicinity. On Guelph street he caught the pair whom he was seeking. They were lying down by the wayside and he came upon them unexpectedly. The man was searched at the freight office. He gave his name as John Smith, of Chatham, and on his person was found a gold watch for which the chief was looking. The lovely couple were then taken down town, and shortly afterwards they were in jail.

The chief set out to return the watch but did not find the Sykes family at home. It was some time before he returned, and when he did, one of his birds had flown.

Chief McCarthy, Graham, had been locked in the first cell, his older companion in the second. How Smith escaped is a mystery. The padlock on his cell was unlocked and he evidently had evidently thrown him a key through one of the cell room windows, through which he then got out. If these windows had been barred, as they should be, this important prisoner would never have got away. His companion remains with the police.

C. A. Wells, while working at McGee's mill, was hit in the back of the head with a fan, making quite a gash. Dr. J. W. Rutherford attended him and found it necessary to put several stitches in the wound. He is now doing nicely.

The argument in the case of Desjardis vs. Willan was heard before Judge Bell in the county court this morning. This case was adjourned from the sittings of the court at the last general sessions. After the hearing of the argument this morning judgment was reserved. Lewis & Richards appeared for the plaintiff and Douglas, K. G., for the defendant.

Thomas B. Lucas, of Dresden, was tried to-day at 12 o'clock noon at the court house before Judge Bell on the charge of stealing a basket of groceries from a farmer at Dresden. Upon the advice of his counsel, Geo. G. Martin, Lucas pleaded guilty. Mr. Martin then made a nice sympathetic address to the judge, arguing that it was a first offence, and showing previous good character. The judge allowed Lucas to go on suspended sentence.

Wm. Gray & Sons Co., Limited, have shipped their exhibit to the Toronto exhibition, which opens Monday. They will also have on exhibition some of the bike wagons, Stanhopes with bike wheels, phonographs and a lot of other too numerous to mention, having sent in all four carloads, including cutters.

Yesterday the visitors went to bat first, and rolled up 108 runs. Dr. Dean 43, Dr. Williams 21, Guthrie 12, and Mercer 11 were the chief contributors. Gordon Mackay secured 71, of which McMillan contributed 18 by his splendid cricket, while Adams hit up 26 in quick time.

Kenny secured four wickets for 35 runs, Aitken two for 5, Williams one for 14, and Horstead two for 5 runs. Turnbull did the best bowling for Gordon Mackay and Co., securing four wickets for 7 runs. The scores:—

WHAT THEY DID

Records of the Chatham Cricketers who took part in the Toronto Tour.

Four members of the city cricket club played with the western eleven, who toured Toronto this week, and played three matches. None of the Chatham men really played up to their customary standard, but the trip will doubtless prove a splendid experience.

In batting "Chum" Aitken, the popular young bowler, lead the Chatham representatives with an average of eight runs per innings, on the three matches. Mercer came second, with an average of seven. Richardson third with an average of six and a third, while Kenny only secured an average of two and two-thirds.

In bowling also Aitken was the leader, securing seven wickets for 96 runs, an average of 13.7 runs to a wicket. Next year Chatham expects to send a larger representation east.

We Have Known People

To suffer actually for years from headache—people who have done everything they could think of to obtain even temporary relief—generally to no purpose—and who have received benefit from wearing correctly fitting glasses.

The reason is easily seen—the headaches were caused by eye strain or some other kindred affection.

If you are subject to headache, let us tell you if it is caused by your eyes.

It will cost you nothing.
