

A Life Problem..

Hurry, keen concentration, hard, nervous brain work, does no harm, or does very great injury.

It All Depends on the Food and the mental condition. There's no doubt that good, pure, wholesome food, properly partaken of, does more to give good health than anything else.

Sometimes we are accused of being cranky on the quality question, and yet when one thinks how much depends on high quality in food, we feel that we cannot be too particular. Don't YOU think so?

Gas Mantles

We make a specialty of every kind of supply for lighting by gas.

We have complete lights or we can supply any part such as mantles, globes, etc.

Notice the brighter light we get in our store from the "International Light". The consumption of gas is surprisingly small too.

Then, we do the gas fitting too, and supply all the necessary pipe, fittings, etc.

Talk to us when you need anything in the lighting line.

WHAT WILL SULTAN DO?

Powers' Fleet Has Arrived at the Island of Mytilene.

Moslems May Declare War, as Natives Believe That an Attempt Is to Be Made to Drive Turkish Rule From Europe—Sultan Not His Own Master—The Porte Grants a Hopeful Conference.

Constantinople, Nov. 27.—The fleet of the allied powers arrived at the Island of Mytilene yesterday.

A further sign, however, of the yielding attitude of the Porte is that the Foreign Minister, Tewfik Pasha, on Saturday visited the British Ambassador, Sir Nicholas R. O'Connor, and the Austro-Hungarian Ambassador, Baron Von Calice, with the object of proposing a modification of the Macedonian reform scheme, by which the financial delegates of the powers in Macedonia should be appointed by the Porte and designated as Ottoman financial councillors. It is doubtful whether the powers will accept this modification, but the position is more hopeful as this is the first time any visit has been made between the Porte and the Ambassadors since Oct. 27, when the Porte refused the request of the Ambassadors for a collective audience of the Sultan, with the exception of the German Ambassador, Baron Von Biebertstein, who on three occasions during this interval visited Tewfik Pasha. The last conference between the Ambassador and the Minister was held Friday last, and it was a prolonged one.

Sultan's Assailants On Trial. The trial was begun here Saturday of a Belgian subject named Boris, and of fifteen Armenians, on the charge of complicity in the attempt on the life of the Sultan, July 21 last. Sixteen other Armenians are being tried simultaneously in connection with the recent discovery of bombs and explosives.

The publicity given to the trials at the present moment, and a reference made in court Saturday, to alleged foreign support received by the revolutionary Armenians lent color to the report that the authorities are trying to stir up public opinion against foreigners. Moslems May Resist. London, Nov. 27.—Information from Constantinople and other Islam sources indicates that the time at last has arrived when the Moslem world is prepared to resist with all its resources the encroachments of the Christian or civilized powers. European statesmen take little cognizance of Moslem public opinion. It is a factor nevertheless which the Sultan himself dares not ignore in its present condition. Intelligent Mussulmans deeply resent the attitude of Europe at this juncture. The present movement in their opinion, is simply a disguised plan to drive Turkish rule from Europe. That they insist is the true issue, and that issue they are prepared to meet by the desperate resistance of the whole Moslem world.

HEM THE MUTINEERS IN

Have Prepared For Fight, But Soldiers Desert Them.

4,000 Men of Naval Equipages at Sebastopol Revolt and the Crews of Two Battleships Promise Support—A Regiment Which Joins the Movement Withdraws—An Admiral Shot, But No Rioting Yet.

Sebastopol, Nov. 27.—Though the mutinous sailors have not yet submitted, but on the contrary have received promises of support from the crews of the battleship Panteleimon (formerly the Kniav Potemkine) and the cruiser Otchakov, and though they are in complete possession of the Admiralty post, where the barracks are located, there were no disorders yesterday and the situation is regarded as much improved.

The mutineers have been deserted by the 1st Regiment, which marched off under arms to a camp formed by loyal sailors, and sent a message to Vice-Admiral Choukine, asking his pardon and saying that they were ready to return to duty.

The soldiers have posted artillery and have the mutineers completely hemmed in but are awaiting the arrival of the troops from Simferopol before attempting to retake the barracks.

Disciplined Mutineers. The sailors apparently are in a state of excellent discipline. They have erected barricades, have placed a guard at the aqueduct which supplies the barracks and have thrown out pickets, which take regular turns at guard duty. They declared yesterday that they had risen because their commanders had withdrawn concessions promised by the Emperor, and they were ready to hold out until these were put into effect.

The sailors who mutinied number about 4,000 and belong to various equipages from the 23rd to the 36th. Including the sailors on board the ships, there were about 8,000 in Sebastopol when the mutiny occurred. The troops in the garrison consisted of the 1st and 2nd regiments, with two battalions of artillery, one battalion of fortress artillery.

WOUNDED THE ADMIRAL.

Seriously Shot by Sailors Whom He Prevented Meeting.

Sebastopol, Nov. 27.—The sailors of this port and the 1st Regiment have united and joined the workmen who are holding a meeting under the red flag. The city is in a state of panic. The sailors tried to hold a meeting and Read Admiral Pisarevski announced that the meeting would be dispersed by the use of firearms, whereupon the sailors fired on and wounded the admiral.

Sebastopol a Coffin. Odessa, Nov. 27.—Troops have been sent from here to quell the disorders at Sebastopol, which are reported to be increasing. The mutineers have sent the chief admiral a black coffin and have demanded the delivery of the town immediately. Railway traffic with Sebastopol is interrupted.

The wounds of Admiral Pisarevski, who was shot by the mutinous sailors, are serious.

Budget Completed. London, Nov. 27.—A despatch to a news agency from St. Petersburg says the Minister of Finance has completed the budget for the coming year and that the revenue is estimated at $1,027,000 and the expenditures at $1,029,000.

Zemstvo and the Poles. Moscow, Nov. 27.—Late Saturday night, after two days which were devoted to a continuous discussion of the Polish question, the resolution proposed by the zemstvos endorsing the stand of the previous congress of autonomy, but favoring reference to the whole question to the National Assembly for a settlement, was adopted unchanged by the Zemstvo Congress.

Ex-Prisoners Revolt. St. Petersburg, Nov. 27.—An Imperial ukase published Saturday announces that the posts of Governor-General of St. Petersburg, Assistant Minister of the Interior, and chief of police, have been abolished. These positions were held by Gen. Treppoff prior to his resignation.

Bomb-Throwing in Warsaw. Warsaw, Nov. 27.—At 10 o'clock last night two bombs were thrown through the windows of the cafe of the Hotel Bristol. The explosion resulted in the smashing of furniture and the slight injury of a few persons. No one was killed, though the cafe was crowded.

Jewish Relief Fund. New York, N. Y., Nov. 27.—The Russian relief fund was increased yesterday by $50,322.95, making a total of $878,511.19 collected to date. Among the contributors was Vice-President Charles W. Fairbanks.

Her Last Hymn Written. Boston, Nov. 27.—Mrs. Mary Kidder, the hymn writer, died at Chelsea Saturday. Mrs. Kidder was 86 years of age. "Is My Name Written There?" "We Shall Sleep But Not Forever" and "The Golden Side" were among some of her best known compositions, and it is estimated that she wrote more than 1,000 hymns during her life.

Mass Still Interrupted. Montreal, Nov. 27.—A slight disturbance took place last evening in St. John's French Presbyterian Church, when Evangelist Mage was speaking. The trouble ended, however, when the pastor had expelled a couple of youths.

Another Fatal Wreck. South Waterboro, Me., Nov. 27.—Three Boston and Maine Railroad employees were killed and two injured in a crash between two freight trains here yesterday.
