In offices where a duplicate and triplicate of everything is filed—it is simply a waste of time, energy and brain power to attempt to do typewriting on any other machine than one that gives clear, clean, clear carbon copies as the Remington and Smith Premier machines produce.

On Thursday, June 20th, a very quiet wedding took place in St. Alban's church, Brasaville, Ontario, when Miss Edith Dorothy Crawley, one of our most popular young ladies, was united in marriage to Cadet Frank Nichols, of the Royal Air Force. Miss Godfrey Bride of Clarence W. Eaton.

The marriage of Miss Missie A. Godfrey, youngest daughter of the late John F. Godfrey, of Wolfville, to Clarence W. Eaton, took place Tuesday evening, June 18th, at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Frank K. Newhall, 122 Summer street, Lynn, Mass. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Horace B. Wilson of the First M. E. church, and the double ring service was used. The couple were unattended. Master Ralph Newhall, nephew of the bride, led Miss Iris Stiles, niece of the bride, were the ring bearers. The occasion was in keeping with the war time spirit and only immediate members of the two families were present at the ceremony, which was followed by an informal reception.

The bride was attired in a satin and colored travelling suit trimmed with blue, with hat to match. She carried bridal roses. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Harriet S. Eaton, 103 Franklin street, and is employed as a mechanical draftsman at the Boston navy yard. He was formerly employed in a similar capacity in Philadelphia. He was graduated in 1914 from Lynn English High school, where he took an active part in athletics and then attended Hamilton school, from which he was graduated in 1916. He has a brother, Sidney B. Eaton, who is now attached to the 36th Infantry in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Eaton left for a wedding trip to Washington and Atlantic City. They will be at home, 19 West Baltimore street, after August 1st.—Lynn, Mass., paper.

Red Cross Convention.

A Red Cross meeting representing Kings county, was held at Kentville on Tuesday afternoon, June 25th, Dr. H. T. DeWolfe presiding. The meeting was addressed by Lieut. O. B. Jones, of Halifax. This address given by 'one who knows' was very forceful and touching. Several local speakers followed, all feeling optimistic that the county allotment of $5000 would be fully met. The nominating committee reported the following officers for the county:

Hon. Chairman—Hon. B. H. Wickwire, Kentville, President—Miss Annie Stuart, Grand Pre. Vice-President—Mr. F. E. Harris, Antigonish. and Vice-President—Mr. E. B. Newcombe, Kentville. Sec'y—Mrs. W. M. Black, with Give Service Girls, Wolfville. Treas.—R. Creighton, manager of Royal Bank, Wolfville. Exec. Com.—(The above), Mr. J. E. Zingsman, Centerville; Mr. George C. Roy, Kentville; Mr. W. C. B. Harris, T. DeWolfe, Wolfville. A chairman for each ward in the county was also chosen.

A Soldier's Life.

The following letter from Gunner George Nowlan, of this town, to his brother, will be of much interest to readers of THE ACADIAN, and we gladly give it place:

FRANCE, Sunday, May 20th. DEAR KARL,—Was very glad to get your letter in one of mother's. Time passes very quickly out here and one is very prone to let his correspondence drop off on that account. The only way we have of reckoning time is by Sundays. Not that they are any different from any other days, but some one usually thinks of them. I suppose you have an idea we are always dodging shells. Well, that is a little way off, my boy, although I had the same idea myself at one time. At times it is as quiet here as in Wolfville on a Sunday afternoon. Of course there are times when you hug the ground and wish you were smaller. If a fellow had to do that for long his nerve would go absolutely. Now we have 24 hours on the guns and 24 off. Then 24 hours on the guns and 24 off. Then an idea here is a record for yesterday. Took over our guns at 2 a. m., just as it stopped raining. The pit and guns were covered with mud. We spent an hour or two washing the gun off and clearing up generally. All this time one of Fritz's batteries had been letting drive all around us. Finally, however, it cleared up a little. Then we were in the D. P. 'potted' came the camouflaged, oil cans, the brakes, and the gun was trailed on the angle given us by the officer. We let six or seven salvos drive at him when he shut up for a time at that rate. After that we had to put up the brake and pull the gun out. The hole he had dug himself in. No more had we got things straightened up and had begun to look forward to dinner than we got 'action' again. This was a long shot and when we went down to dinner at 2:30 p. m. we found the cook had not been told to get anything for us. Of course we got something after which we carried shells into our pit. Just 15 minutes before supper at 4:30 we again got 'action' which lasted until six o'clock. Again we went to cookhouse, got tea, biscuit and dully beef which we took to our guns but had not time to open beef before 'action' again. However this shoot did not last more than half an hour, after which we had supper. Again we carried shells until dark. Usually we have to fire quite a bit during the night, but last night we did our spell on guard and then slept. At 10 o'clock the crew of duty brought us hot cocoa and, believe me, it was good. Hope there is a box en route to me. Practically the sale of biscuits and is forbidden here. If they cut out our boxes I don't know what we will do. Love to all and do write often. Your lanky brother, GEORGE.
