

Indignity Put Upon Canadians.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The Editor is not responsible for the opinions of his correspondents, nor does he always agree with them. To the editor of the Times.

Dear Sir,
I should like to ask through the medium of your paper how much longer we are to be obliged to walk in danger of limbs, I will not say lives, upon the public sidewalks through the roof water pipes that are allowed to drain upon the sidewalks. On one of our main streets, Toronto St., (to wit) this nuisance is especially noticeable. As our new City fathers will soon be in office I would suggest that the not least important subject for their consideration is the dangerous condition of the sidewalks. Thanking you in anticipation.

I am,
Citizen.
