Rossley Theatre.

There was a crowded house last night and judging by the roars of laughter everyone enjoyed the show. Tommy Levine and Dave Harris were more comical than ever, and indeed one and all of the company worked to make the show one long laugh. Tonight will be their farewell, and all who wish to enjoy a pleasant evening should visit Rossley's. There will be a special matinee for children at 2.30 when Baby Queen will charm all children with her lovely singing and charming ways.

 Surrounded by the leaders of Democracy, President Wilson signed the Underwood-Simmons Tariff Bill last night. Simultaneously telegrams were sent by Customs Collectors throughout the country by the Treasury Department putting into actual operation the first Democratic Tariff revision since 1894.

LONDON, To-day.
 The Albanians are falling back all along the line, says the Telegraph Belgrade correspondent. After desperate fighting Serbian troops entered Stuga, having cleared that territory and scattered the Albanians, whose retreat over the River Drin was cut off; the damage done by the Albanians was enormous. Belgrade is confident the rebellion is over, but Albanians will probably follow the tactics they adopted under Turkish rule and attack again as soon as they can recuperate their forces in the mountains.

PORTLAND, Ore., To-day.
 Wireless station here and at Cornwalls have picked up messages reporting the steamer Spokane of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, wrecked off Cape Lazo, B.C. The steamer Dolphin is rushing to the Spokane's assistance in answer to S. O. S. calls. Steamer Latouche is taking off passengers. The Spokane is a passenger vessel plying between Portland and North Coast points.

Found Dead.

At 10 o'clock last night Mr. Joseph Pippy, coxswain of H. M. Customs night boat, while coming from the General Post Office by way of George St. dropped dead. Const. Stamp first saw the man on the ground, motionless. The body was immediately removed to the morgue and a post mortem held, showing that death was due to heart failure. The corpse was then taken to the late home of the deceased. Mr. Pippy was a well known figure in the community and for many years was in H. M. Customs. He is survived by a son and two daughters, to whom deep sympathy is expressed.

Rally Day.

At Cochrane Street Sunday School. To-morrow will be observed as Rally Day in Cochrane Street Sunday School. In the afternoon there will be a public meeting at the Sunday School beginning at 2.30. A good programme has been prepared, one feature of which is an address by Mr. Brabury, lately returned from the teachers' tour to England and Scotland. In dealing with her subject, "Hands across the Sea," special reference will be made to the originator of the Sunday School Movement, which has now become world-wide. The house of Robert Rakes, Gloucester, was visited and it stands to-day as a precious relic of one of the world's greatest benefactors. There will be other addresses and recitations with special singing. All old scholars are invited and new ones will be cordially welcomed. A grand rally of all departments is expected.
