Edward Crossman, a 16-year-old incorrigible, who was released from prison only a few days ago, was arrested last evening charged with burglarizing the confectionery store of Mr. A. S. Wadden, on Water Street and stealing therefrom $2.35 in silver and coppers, 15 packages of cigarettes and 8 plugs of tobacco. Nerves of the Stomach

Were Weak and Inactive as Result of Nervous Prostration—Lost Twenty Pounds—Had to Take Sleeping Powders to Get Any Rest.

St. Catharines, Ont., October 2nd.—Many people never realize that the movement and action of every organ of the human body is dependent on the energy supplied by the nervous system.

When the nervous system gets run down there is weakness throughout the entire body. You feel tired and languid and your stomach and other digestive organs are similarly affected. Appetite fails, digestion is poor, you do not get the good of what you eat and gradually grow weaker and weaker.

This process can only be stopped by such treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which goes directly to create new nerve force and thereby to invigorate the whole human body. Mrs. Geo. S. Elise, 46 Davidson street, St. Catharines, Ont., writes: "My husband had an attack of nervous prostration, and, although he doctor for some time and tried different other medicines, he could not get relief. He had to resort to sleeping powders given him by the doctor to make him sleep. The greater part of the trouble seemed to be with the nerves of his stomach. He began to lose weight, and kept on going down until he had lost twenty pounds. We had read advertisements in the newspapers for Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and noticed that it seemed to be doing a lot of good for people troubled with nervousness, so my husband decided to try it. He found benefit almost from the start, and continued this treatment until he had taken about twelve or thirteen boxes. The results were most satisfactory. He is now enjoying good health, sleeps well, and has gained back nearly all the weight he had lost. He also uses Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills occasionally, and thinks them an excellent remedy. I have also used this latter medicine for dizzy spells and liver trouble, and was completely cured of these complaints. We think a great deal of Dr. Chase's medicines, and cannot speak too highly of them."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, a full treatment of 6 boxes for $2.75, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute. Imitations only disappoint.

Famous Yacht America

Will Not Be Used As Merchantman, Nor Broken Up.

This famous yacht that brought the Cup to this country has been purchased by David W. Simpson, Ship Broker of Boston, in behalf of prominent yacht owners from the Butler estate through the office of Hollis Burgess. She will be taken to a safe mooring place and always be kept as she is for use as a yacht. While she was advertised for sale, in order to retain her here the purchasers paid more money for her than she would have brought to be used as a merchant vessel.

War Foretold
Thirty Years Ago.

The fact that the Kaiser was destined to play the role of the modern Attila and become the scourge of Europe was prophesied nearly thirty years ago in a remarkable article published in the New York Times in April 1888, by Harold Frederic, the famous novelist and correspondent.

At that date, of course, the Kaiser was still Crown Prince of Prussia, and Mr. Frederic who was in Berlin on behalf his Newspaper, had many opportunities of coming into contact with him.

"One shudders," Mr. Harold Frederic wrote, "as one pats the mild, contemplative head of the blood-thirsty solely because of the terrible ferocity which lurks under the sleek and gentle exterior. In the same way you look into the face of this young heir of the Hohenzollerns and remember with wondering reservations the malignant tales which have been told of his inner nature by those who knew it best."

"Their dislike for him is based on a general conception of his character. This view is that he is utterly cold, entirely selfish, wantonly cruel, a young man without conscience or compassion, or any softening virtues whatever. He is saturated with all the instincts and ideas which have raised this parvenu Prussia to its present eminence, and his character is the crown and flower of two centuries of might with ruthlessness and spoliation exalted into a creed."

"On the other hand, his mother is the best royal product of a totally and fundamentally different civilization. Prince William habitually speaks of his mother to his associates and familiars as 'the English Woman.' He ostentatiously addressed her in German, although he knew English perfectly, and she has always made a point of having her children speak English in the family circle."

"We all know that it is a mere matter of months before he will be the autocratic master of 2,000,000 armed men. The question is, What will he do? The most common answer is that he will overrun Europe. It seems very probable that some future Taine, a century hence, perhaps, will write to show that William II of Prussia and the German Empire was a mysterious belated survival of the antediluvian Goths and Vandals—an Attila born a thousand and more years after his time."

"Nobody with eyes in his head could have passed the week just ended in Berlin without recognising that if a fire-brand comes to the throne the materials are close-crowded upon him for a terrible conflagration."

"Even now, when I go downstairs in this hotel to eat my dinner, one half the men at the tables are officers in uniform. The elevator boy touches his cap to me with a military salute. The waiters when they received my order turn on their heels like fusilliers under the eye of a drill sergeant. The military spirit pervades everything and everybody."

"What this means is that the army here in Germany will utterly swamp what organized pacific instincts there are in the empire the moment a young fighting Kaiser draws his sword and cries out: 'Who will follow me?'"

"The military is all powerful in all the upper middle and higher grades of society. Little of provocation, of the popular appeals to national feeling would make it master of nine-tenths of the German people. Kaiser Wilhelm II in the gleam of his youthful distinction of face and figure, of his deep Teutonic prejudices, of his all-controlling belief in himself and his race and his destiny, could hurl a practical united Germany East, West or South a month after he had ascended the Hohenzollern throne."

"This is not a pleasant or human conclusion, but is a necessary one."

"QUALITY TALKS!"

Salesmanship unaided may make some first sales, but even at its best it cannot build a repeat business, unless supported by Quality Goods. INFERIOR PRODUCTS SOON REVEAL THEIR REAL CHARACTER, and weaken the courage so essential to success in selling on a permanent basis. Skill and enthusiasm of the highest order are no match for such a handicap.

BUT QUALITY PRODUCTS

in selling and make it increasingly easy and cumulative. Their purchase can be urged with easy assurance, since the buyer is certain to gain from their presence in his store.

Household Notes.

Rice can be made into a delicious savory dish with left-over sausage. Cranberries may be canned in cold water and kept for some time.

Cold water will soothe the pain of any sudden inflammation of the eye. Red currants, chopped raisins and orange peel make a good preserve.

The canary fancier should know that the birds love nasturtium blossoms.

Save even a quarter cupful of left-over food—something can be done with it.

If there is no food, garbage or uncleanness about, flies will not be attracted.

Don't use fresh fruits when the coarser vegetables are included in the meal.

Hulled corn is one of the old-time New England dishes which is coming into favor.

To make a dish of rice a well-balanced meal, fat and flavour should be added.

Salt codfish with egg sauce, baked potato and a green salad makes an excellent lunch.

Building Boom at Curling.

Quite a building boom is on here just now. In addition to the construction of the Davis Hotel which has been going on throughout the season, considerable alterations have been made at the Deanery to put it in readiness for the occupancy of the nuns, and repairs effected to St. Patrick's Hall. Jas. Barry has taken over the bungalow formerly occupied by J. T. Thorne, has raised the roof and is making a two-story cottage of it. Mr. Thorne has started the erection of a new bungalow, on LeMoine's property. Last week two carloads of lumber were landed at the C. E. school grounds, and work on the erection of a new school building to replace the Curling Memorial School destroyed by fire a little over a year ago, is expected to start within a few days. Alex. Read is having a wing added to the building occupied by Dr. Bullard. Several other dwelling houses are under course of erection, and the remainder of the present season promises to be a busy one for our carpenters.—Western Star, Sept. 28.

LATEST!

PLAIN SPEAKING.

LONDON, To-day. Joseph Havelock Wilson, General Secretary of the National Seamen's Union, in a speech at Middlesborough last night declared that all want peace but were not going to have a German peace. "It has been said that it is impossible to have a military victory. Well, if we cannot win the war with such a great weight as that of the United States, we do not deserve to win it at all." The speaker declared that some pacifists who lost every country but their own would make believe that Great Britain was as guilty in this war as the Germans. I can only describe them, he said, "as story foolish men."

GERMAN ATTACKS FAIL.

LONDON, To-day. Five attacks by the Germans along the Ypres-Menin Road and at the northeast corner of Polygon Wood have ended in complete failure, the War Office announces.

LONDON, To-day. General Louis Botha in addressing the opening of the Convention of the South African Party, according to a despatch from Pretoria, says the war was forced upon the Allies and the only thing to do now was to fight to a finish. The Premier added: "Let a peace come which will benefit the whole world and enable every country to shape its future on a sound basis."

COPENHAGEN, To-day. A monster demonstration in favor of a peace without annexation was held on Sunday at Frankfurt on the Main. The crowd numbered forty or fifty thousand and addresses were made from six different platforms simultaneously.
