Are You a Good Father?

Your Girl

By all means, let it be agreed that you have measured up in a big way in your responsibilities to your daughter. It is her future that must give you the greatest concern-will she be well provided for?

Many fatherless girls are having a father's protection of their interests carried on year after year by this company. The father's wishes are carried out as arranged in his will and the safeguards he provided surround his daughter through life.

Confer with us about the provisions in your will for your daughter. We know from experience the pitfalls and the duties to which every father should give thought.

A booklet of valuable suggestions on the making of wills will be supplied on request.
