CENTRAL UNION HAS FINE SEASON

Mrs. F. Yorke Miller Addresses W. C. T. U. On Recent American Convention.

HEAR CAMP REPORT Mothers' Club Finds It Necessary To Turn Away Would-Be Members.

Mrs. Flora Yorke Miller, who was fete yesterday and today for the annual sent by the Ontario provincial W. C. T. bazaar being put on by the women's U. to the American W. C. T. U. con- guild. It has been one of the dnest vention held just recently in Detroit, and most successful affairs to be was the special speaker at yesterday's arranged by the organization, and meeting of the London Central W. C. rarely has there been such a display of Mrs. Miller went to the convention and the many gayly festioned booths added cheerful touches of color to the whole. The Christmas spirit was found to maintain a projectic coder leden with tows. the meeting yesterday an inspiring message of the work being done among the youth of the United States. In content of the room and many transfer or the room and many transfer or the room and many transfer or the room and many done in the room and many done in the youth of the United States. In speaking of the young "white ribboners," she stated that over one million names had been put on the lists of the juvenile section of the W. C. T. U. in the country to the south.

The main booth was placed in the center of the room, and was dore in two shades of yellow, with streamer effects. In this booth were placed all kinds of dainty bouloir a.ticles, not only of the lingeric type, but also in linens. There, too, were the children's wear and many aprons. The home-juvenile section of the W. C. T. U. in the country to the south.

In connection with the evangelistic work being done in the United States, Mrs. Miller told the local members counter was heavy with the very best being done in the United States, when the work being done in the United States, will be to the work being done in the United States, when the work of the that some 4,000 odd prayer circles had been formed in that country, and that made rolls, plum puddings and mincebeen formed in that country, and that all were functioning at the present time with splendid success. She also told of the crusade women of Ohio, who started the W. C. T. U. movement in America, stating that of the original number but four or five were still living. One of the ploneer members. 86 birds. At the candy and flower boeth successful strength or the convention. years of age, was at the convention, an effective pink and green color scheme and that one woman had enlisted into the membership of the organization 105

A mecca for the many patronesses

new members in about one year.

Miss Munson gave an interesting financial report of the W. C. T. Usummer camp at Wonde and. Miss Harrison, the camp mother, also spoke. She told the members that fewer girls had attended the past camp because of the rain and cold weather, but that on the rain and cold weather, but that on the whole it had been most successful and very happy. She also stated that where many miscellaneous articles were she was well pleased with the new lo-

The question of W. C. T. U. mothers' clubs also came up for discussion. The one club of this kind in the city was reported in such a flourishing condition that many would-be members have been refused membership. Mrs. been refused membership. Mrs. Hueston, superintendent of the little white ribboners, has enrolled into membership nearly 100 of the children of the mothers of the club.

It has been decided by the mothers club to carry on its social service work, for the present, separate from the Central W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Paddell, the president, presided Readings were given by Misses. J. Ab-Mrs. Paddell, the president, presided over the meeting, and an inspiring Bible reading was given by Mrs. James Baldwin. A report from the white ribbon circle at the Metropolitan United church was also heard. This section of the organization reported that 25 new members had already been secured, and 10 more names were soon to be added to the membership roll.

Readings were given by Misses. J. Abbott and B. Smith; instrumentals by Misses. A. Cation and W. Brown; duet by Misses. E. Logan and E. Pratten; solos, Misses. R. Smith and M. Cation. Under the presidency of Miss N. Duffin the booths were in charge of the following: Misses. K. Logan, R. Smith, J. Abbott, G. Woods, A. Cation and T. Saul.

Helpful Advice to

WOMEN and THE HOME WOMAN RESCUES SAILORS FROM ERIE'S ICY WATERS

saleable goods.

The hall itself has been decorated,

CRUMLIN M. B.

Crumlin, Nov. 23.—The United Crumlin and Bailey's mission band held

ARRANGES BAZAAR Name of Abigail Becker Goes Down in Annals of Canadian St. George's Parish Hall En History For Her Bravery 71 Years Ago-Saves Fete For Annual Event-Crew of Grain Boat. Is Successful.

The parish hall of St. George's Anglican church, West London, has been in and one in particular is honored in London by an I. O. D. E. chapter. Abigail Becker, the wife of "Trapper"

Yesterday, Nov. 24, marked the deed through which Abigail Becker added a bright chapter to the annals of glorious the attempt and as he neared the shore he was seized by the woman, who derives and ordered a played feerlessly into the joy water.

ter fight against a raging sea.

The schooner Conductor, owned by John McLeod, M.L.A., of Amherstburg, laden with grain bound for Port Dalhousie and sailed by a Captain Hackett heroign, and although she lived for land the land six man was oversken by a terand six men, was overtaken by a terrific autumn storm and driven help-lessly before the wind. Running too close to the Canadian shore she struck close to the Canadian shore she struck band, no public recognition of this the bar off Long Point Island and there woman's great deed is recalled in Canthe seven men faced death as their adian history.

Occasionally there goes down in history the name of a courageous woman, tory the name of a courageous woman.

Then when the "graveyard of Erie" eemed to beckon to them, a fire sud denly sprang up on the beach ahead and a woman was seen frantically wav-Becker, who lived in a hut on Long ing her arms. The captain understood from her gestures that she wished them Point Island, is the one whose deeds to attempt the swim to shore and as no other chance of life remained they Canadian womanhood with an act of daring and endurance almost beyond conception. On Long Point Island, which is known as "the graveyard of Lake Erie," just off Port Dover, 71 years ago, she risked her life to save seven sallors nearing the end in a bitter fight against a razing sea.

Social and Personal receiving on Tuesday, Dec. 1. Miss Fraser, of Orillia, is a guest with her sister, Mrs. Grant, and Dr.

Grant, Waterloo street. Mrs. A. T. Barnes, Wortley road, is a guest with her sister, Miss Effie Brown, in Windsor.

Mrs. (Dr.) Gunne is entertaining a the tea hour on Friday for Mrs. Edward Graham of Brampton.

sold. It was outstarding with its more Miss Saunders, Piccadilly street, somber decorations of purple and white. entertaining at afternoon tea this week for Mrs. Edward Graham. Mrs. E. Masuret is entertaining at the tea hour on Tuesday afternoon of next week. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ward of Stratford are visiting the latter's sister and brother in the city for a few days. Mrs. David Arnott is entertaining at the tea hour this afternoon for her guest, Mrs. Edward Graham, of Bramp-Mr. Howard Clark has returned from England, where he attended the Wembley exhibition during the summer

The first of a series of dinners being arranged by the officers of the Royal Canadian Regiment is to be held tomorrow evening.

Miss Ida Leckie and Miss Lillian Johnson were among the Londoners in

Overworked Women

Mrs. Patrick Hare, 651 Talbot street, Toronto recently for the Royal Winter

Fair and horse show. Mrs. A. J. Clark, Waterloo street, entertained at the tea hour yesterday afternoon for her daughter, Mrs. R. B. Stewart, of London, England.

Mrs. Charles White, Richmond street north, was Miss Marshall Saunders' hostess today, and entertained her at luncheon at her beautiful country

Mr. Morley F. Bradden of Windson motored to town last Saturday and spent the week-end with his grandarents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bradden, Rosedale avenue The visit of Mrs. Harry Burkholder provincial president of the Imperial Daughters of the Empire, to this city, has been postponed until the New Year. Mrs. J. A. Facey, handkerchiefs; Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. William Phillips of A. R. Farr, pillowslips; Mrs. M. M. Goderich and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Maxwell, aprons; Mrs. Henry Horwood,

Mrs. Edward Graham, of Brampton Mrs. David Arnott, Queen's avenue, orange tree; Mrs. E. Pearson, supper

What promises to be a smart military function of the season is the annual ball of the Oxford Rifles, which takes place in Woodstock on Dec. 7. A number of the military people of London

Mr. C. J. Warren and his daughter, Miss June Warren, have returned from delightful week-end spent in To-While there Miss Warren sang very sweetly at the anniversary services of the Edgincourt United church. Mrs. R. B. Stewart of London, England, arrived in town recently to spend some time with her parents, Mr. and the marriage Mrs. A. J. Clark, Waterloo street. Mr.

and will join Mrs. Stewart in London for Christmas. buyer for the Hudson Bay Company, visited his sister, Mrs. E. A. Frolick, of Exeter, at the home of Mr. T. J. Guymer, this city, over the week-end. Mr. Frolick came down from Exeter and held on Friday evening, Dec. 4. The held on Friday evening, Dec. 4. The held on Friday evening been held this coming over to hear the address given ing contest at the university of Westcoming over to hear the address given by Marshall Saunders, distinguished Canadian writer, before the Women's Canadian club. Miss Coyne was also a guest at the little supper party arranged in Miss Saunder's honor by Mrs. D. C. MacGregor (Marion Keith), at St. Andrew's manse. Special guests of the occasion were members of the London Women's Press club.

Stewart sails on Dec. 2 for Canada,

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mitchell and laughter, Miss Daisy Mitchell, of South

iaughter, Miss Daisy Mitchell, of South London, motored to St. Catharines recently and were guests with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Chase. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell returned to their home here on Monday, but Miss Mitchell remained for the week and during her visit she delighted St. Catharines audiences with successful selections from the play, Kathleen, presented last Monday. Tuesday and Wednesday at the Grand theatre. Miss Mitchell also visited the Clifton house, Niagara Falls.

FOREST CITY CHAPTER.

What promises to be an interesting event of this week is the bazaar being held in the Alma block on Thursday held in the Alma block on Thursday afternoon and evening, under the ausafternoon and evening, under the ausafternoon and evening this affair, and among those in attendance will be the worthy matron and patron of the chapter, Mrs. Caroline Connor and Charles Westman. Mrs. Harry Haring has made extensive plans for an attractive fishpond. Two able assist-lifton house, Niagara Falls. was the "at home" given by Mrs. H. H. roung at her home on Dufferin avenue

CHESLEY MO in honor of Mrs. Charles Wakeman of Wisconsin, who has been a guest with Mr. and Mrs. George McCormick. The drawing-room was attractive with chrysanthemums, and during the afternoon nearly 200 guests were graciously welcomed by the hostess and Mrs. Wakeman. Mrs. Young wore a graceful gown of delph blue georgette, and Mrs. Wakeman was smartly gowned in blue crepe with robin's egg blue feather boa and hat to match. Mrs. Arthur Brickenden, Mrs. Bert Masuret and Miss Florence Wilson invited to the tearoom, where the pretty tea table was centered with golden 'mums in a crystal of the didner of the school and the mothers was brought in for relief work. A social time concluded the moethers (club, presided over by Mrs. T. Owen, Dr. Duncan gave an interesting and instructive address on "Infections." His entire talk, however, took the form of a questionaire. The executive of the Alexandra Mothers' club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alexa will be at the home of the school and the price.

A he executive of the Alexandra on "Infections." His entire talk, however, took the form of a questionaire. The executive of the Alexandra on "Infections." His entire talk, however, took the form of a questionaire. The evening's program also included to the home of the school and the form of a questionaire. The evening's program also included the home of the school and the price.

A shower of groceries and clothing from the children of the school and the s centered with golden 'mums in a crystal vener. basket and yellow candles in silver holders. Pouring out tea were: Mrs. At a Mrs. James Miller, while assisting in serving the guests were Mrs. Kenneth ensuing vear: Honorary president Greene, Mrs. Jack Stevens and Miss Mary Armstrong.

Mrs. D. C. MacGregor was the gracious hostess of the London Women's Press club when she invited the members to St. Andrew's United manse to meet Miss Marshall Saunders, who was a guest of the Women's Canadian was a guest of the women's Canadian club yesterday afternoon. Around the glowing fire in the spacious livingrooms the members chatted with the charming author of "Beautiful Joe," while she told them of her birds. Mrs. while she told them of her birds. Mrs. John Stevely, president of the Women's Canadian club. Mrs. Charles White, Miss Saunders' hostess, and Miss Fraser, of Orillia, were special guests, and the visitors received a warm welcome from Dr. and Mrs. MacGregor and Miss Miller. A delicious supper was served, with Miss Beatrice Taylor, the president of the local Press club, pouring out tea at a table centered with a lone beautiful rose. Following the tea, Mrs. Margaret Clarke Russell read a charming little poem to the guest of honor, after which Miss Saunders told a delightful little story about her favorite pigeon just before she left to catch her train for Ham-A very enjoyable time was spent on Monday evening at the home of Mr and Mrs. W. H. Reeve, Pall Mall street when a number of their friends gathered to celebrate with them the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. Both the bridesmaid and the best man of a quarter century ago were present, Mrs. William H. Wyatt of Broughdale and Mr. John Berry of Emery street. During the evening the father of the bride, Mr. Robert Berry ang a solo, and Miss Betty Walsh an Miss Ruth Wyatt sang a duet. Many beautiful gifts were received by the bride and groom of some years ago, and among the best wishes extended them were congratulations received from Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Reeve of Vancouver, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Hogarth of Toronto and Miss Emma Reeve of The evening was spent Toronto. nusic and games, after which a dainty lunch was served in the rooms, pret tily decorated with yellow 'mums and paper white narcissus. Assisting serving the many guests were Miss Cora Berry, Mrs. Fred Routledge, Miss Ruth Reeve, Mrs. William Wyatt, Miss Winnifred Reeve, Mrs. T. H. Berry and Miss Enid Berry. Before the evening was concluded the host and hostess hanked their many friends for their

WESLEY WOMEN TO GIVE BAZAARI

Ladies' Aid Is Arranging Event For Two Days of This Week.

Many plans are being completed for the annual bazaar to be held on Thursday and Friday of this week by the ladies' aid of the Wesley United church. The event will be featured with a chicken supper on Thursday evening, and on Friday high tea will be served. Mrs. R. R. Smith is the president of the society, and among the ladies who are endeavoring to make the affair a success are the conveners. They include Goderich and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Maxwell, aprons; Mrs. Helry Howbod, Boyes of Brucefield spent the past week towels; Mrs. Ed Geary, fancy work; with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Boyes, Huron Mrs. George Baker, baby booth; Mrs. street. They also motored to Ingersoll Ed Parnell, home-cooking; Mrs. W. Paynter, candy; Mrs. J. Ballantyne, ice Paynter, candy; Mrs. Leabneton, tearnorm. cream; Mrs. Fred Johnston, tearoom; Mrs. W. H. Shoebottom, fishpond and Afternoon tea will be served ecah day from 3 to 5 o'clock.

ENGAGEMENTS

A charge of 75c one insertion ($1.00 for 2 insertions) on the Women's Page is made for notices under this heading. Orders for inserting of engagement notices must bear the name and address of sender and must be in this office by 9 o'clock on the evening preceding first day of insertion.

Mr. Robert A. Murray, West Monk-on, announces the engagement of his Herman E. Smith, B.S.A., the marriage to take place quietly car

CLUB NEWS

MASONVILLE CLUB. The first meeting for the season of was also a guest with Mr. Guymer for the week-end.

Miss Margaret Coyne, of St. Thomas, was a guest in the city yesterday. Week but owing to the public speak-leigh, is competing in the public speak-leigh, is competing in the university of West-

CHESLEY MOTHERS' CLUB. At last night's regular meeting of the ST. JOSEPH'S UNIT.

At a meeting of the St. Joseph's nothers' unit held last night, the folensuing year: Honorary president, Mrs. team of the Rectory street school. The event took place in the kindergarten John Moir; president, Mrs. William Wilkinson; vice-president, Mrs. George

CREPE DE CHINE, Dark and light shades, including black and white; values to $2.00.

Second Floor.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

In the Making

WOOL CHALLIES, Dainty patterns for negligee and children's about hall price. At, a yard, 69c Second Floor.

Silk and Wool Fabrics

At One-Third to One-Half Below Usual Prices

Odd pieces and short lengths of Plain and Fancy Silks, Dress Goods and Coatings. Take advantage of this sale to obtain materials for pretty and practical Christmas gifts of your own making. Sale tomorrow (Thursday). Shop early for best selection.

Second Floor.

Silk Remnants

A wide range here of Silks of all kindshabutai, satins and silk crepes, many novelty and sports silks, in lengths from 1/2 a yard to 3½ yards; much below regular $1.00 prices. At, a yard

Second Floor.

Fuii Silks and Crepes

Fugi Silk, white with black pin stripe, the ideal silk for shirts, blouses, scarfs, etc.; 33inch width; regular $2.00. Sale $1.25

BLACK CREPE FUGI, all silk, 38-inch width; regular $1.50. Sale price, a 89c yard

Second Floor.

LUVISCA SILK (made in England), neat patterns in fancy stripes, for men's shirts

4 Ends Cut Velvet

Rich quality on a background of georgette, all good shades; regular $7.00. yard $3.50

Second Floor.

Wool Dress Goods, Suitings, Coatings At Big Reductions

36-INCH TO 40-INCH WIDTHS.

FINE WOOL DRESS GOODS, odd pieces of broken lines and short lengths, 1 to 3 yards; useful lengths for skirts, dresses and children's wear; values to $2.50. On $1.00 Thursday all at one price, a yard Second Floor.

54-INCH TO 56-INCH WIDTHS.

In a good range of various weaves, colored and black; dress goods, suitings and coatings; odd pieces and short lengths; values $1.50 to $3.00. Sale price, a yard

SPECIAL FOR CHRISTMAS.

Handkerchiefs

PURE LINEN HANDKERCHIEFS. A special purchase and the best values we have offered for

LADIES' HEMSTITCHED LINEN HANDKER-MEN'S HEMSTITCHED LINEN HANDKER-

Main Floor.

Gray's, Ltd. TUBULAR TRICO-LETTE VESTING Best quality, pink, orchid, peach and white A yard $1.33 Vest length, ¾ yard $1

140 DUNDAS STREET.

PHONES 115 and 116.

CHRISTMAS CARDS, SEALS AND TAGS. Choose yours while there is a choice new 10c, 15c and 20c ane; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. James Arrangements were made during the ession for a card party to be held at he school the evening of Tuesday,

The next regular meeting of the club will be held on Thursday, Dec. 10.

LABOR PARTY EUCHRE. The second in a series of euchres being arranged by the London women's labor party was successfully held in the Majestic building last evening. Mrs. M. A. Ager was the convener, assisted by Mrs. Alex Cillmon. Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Alex Gillmou Summers and Mrs. Fred White, Quebe street. The prize winners were Mrs.

Second Floor.

J. Baxter and P. Ferguson, while the and J. Wooton. The consolations fell

ABERDEEN TEAMS FETED. The domestic science room of the Aberdeen school was the scene of a erry banquet last evening, when the mothers' club entertained the boys' football team and the girls' basketball team. The tables were gay with very attractive decorations and among the many delicious goodies was a ham, the gift of Alderman R. Carswell. Special guests of the evening were C. Brown, the principal, and J. Willis, both of whom spoke briefly to the young ruests. Mr. Willis also moved a of thanks to the women, convened by Mrs. H. Bradford, who had arranged the successful event. EALING MOTHERS' CLUB.

A shower was held last evening at ne home of Mrs. W. Hill in aid of the oming bazaar to be held by the Ealing mothers' club. Some 40 members were present and a lovely lot of useful gifts were brought in. Mrs. Mark Ayrs, the president, received with the hostess, and later in the evening opened the Haring has made extensive plans for the house, Niagara Falls.

A very smart function of yesterday ants for the bazaar are Harry Haring ants for the bazaar are The final tea to be held before the bazaar will be at the home of Mrs. Mark Ayrs next Monday, when the the hostess.

RECTORY MOTHERS' CLUB.

The Rectory Street Mothers' club arranged a very delightful banquet last room, whre covers were laid for 18 guests amid the gayest of decorations in the school colors, blue and gold. Special guests of the evening were Mayor Wenige, Alderman R. Carswell, G. M. Edwards and W. E. Hogarth. All gave brief addresses, commending the Boys on their team work. Master William McCillians and Comment of the American Comments of the American Comments.

liam McGillivray, captain of the team, responded on behalf of his associates.

The convener of the evening was Mrs. Charles Cunningham, who was Mrs. Charles Cunningham, who was assisted by Mrs. J. E. Park, Mrs. W. Sharratt, Mrs. Charles Keen, Mrs. P. Carswell, Mrs. S. F. Erdman, Mrs. W. E. Hogarth and Mrs. J. Panting.

SACRED HEART UNIT.

Mrs. E. Slattery entertained last evening for the Sacred Heart Mothers' unit. Some six tables of bridge were in play, and the prizes were won by evening for the boys of the

TOMURINE TO FOR YOUR

Your Baby

THE unlimited vitality and vigorous health that makes ommended by doctors for more than twenty years. child-nursing a joyous, care-

This pleasant Tonic enriches the blood, tones up the entire system and helps you to bequeath to your baby a strong frame and a sound wineglassful four times daily Price 35c-3 Bottles for $1.00 Malt Tonic

Every Drug Store Sells It

THE REAL STRENGTH BUILDER

Mrs. Snannon and Mrs. Jenries. During the evening Miss Shute contributed wishing the evening Miss Shute contributed making Christmas stockings for the orphans in the city.

In connection with the splendid services they render to those in need, the vices they render to those in need, the WELFARE CLINICS. Miss Bertha Smith. Child Welfare nurse, has announced that the Child Welfare clinics held in the various parts of the city, will be closed for two weeks during the Christmas seasch. will be no clinics the week following December 19, nor the week between Christmas and New Year's Day.

SOCIAL SERVICE CLUB. The Social Service Club members chair. Blocks were handed in for the vere entertained this week at the home quilt, and were given to Mrs. Paterson of Mrs. Leslie Hawke for their regular to finish. Arrangements were made to make the quilt at the next meeting, tributing of Christmas boxes to some which will be held Thursday afternoon. school on December 8, a splendid pro- meting. 12 families, which the club has taken Dec. 10.

Mrs. Shannon and Mrs. Jeffries. Dur- under its wing. The club also intends members have stated that they would be glad of outside assistance and have invited Londoners to assist them in their endeavors. Mrs. Fred Waud Waterloo street, is the club president. GLEN OAK L. A. Glen Oak, Nov. 24.—The regular meeting of the ladies aid of Glen tak United church was held at the hom of Mrs. Fisher, with Mrs. Paisley in the

It is a bulk food that doctors recommend. It is guaranteed to be per-manently effective, if eaten regu-

After 12 years' suffering with constipation, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN brought lasting relief Kellogg's ALL-BRAN will bring sure relief to you just as it has to Mrs. Bevis and thousands of others.

Think what it means to be ever-iastingly free from the dull, throb-bing headaches, sallow skin and perpetual tiredness which are con-stipation's toll. But let Mrs. Bevis tell you her inspiring story:

Words can't express my gratitude for Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. For 12 years I suffered with constipation, always tak-ing medicine, had dull headaches and never felt well. For the past 12 months I've eaten ALL-BRAN and haven't taken one drop of medicine. I've gained in weight, my health is so improved I fest 18 sears younger.

manently effective, if eaten regularly, or the purchase price will be returned by your grocer. Only Also BRAN brings sure relief.

Eat at least two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. Try the recipes given on the package. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is nature's own way of cleaning the intestine. Made in London, Canada. Served at leading hotels and restaurants. Sold by all grocers.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound