"Am I accountable because some crack-brained person put a wrong construction on my words? Leon Czolgosz, I am convinced, planned the deed unaided and entirely alone. There is no anarchist ring which would help him. There may be anarchists who would murder, but there also are men in every walk of life who sometimes feel the impulse to kill. I do not know surely, but I think Czolgosz was one of those down-trodden men who see all the misery which the rich inflict upon the poor, who think of it, who brood over it, and then in despair resolve to strike a great
