OBITUARY

The Late George Dutch

The death took place at Sea Side, Rest. Co., on June 2, of Mr. George Dutch, for many years one of the most prominent and best known men in the northern section of the Province. The late Mr. Dutch was 74 years old and up until a few years ago carried on a large lumbering business, in which he was very successful. He was never married and had been in poor health for some time previous to his death. He is survived by three brothers, Alexander of Eureka, Cal., Robert of New Mills, N. B., and John of Brewer, Me., and four sisters, Mrs. E. McMillan of Black Point, N. B., Mrs. A. F. Johnstone of Saint John, Mrs. J. B. Flemming of Moncton and Mrs. H. M. Kent, of Bathurst, Two sisters, Mrs. W. J. Kent of Bathurst, Mrs. Potter of Sunny Brae predeceased him. The funeral took place on Thursday June 4, and was very largely attended.

John McGovern

On Sunday morning the 14th inst., an old and respected citizen of Jacquet River passed away in the person of Mr. John McGovern.

The deceased had been in failing health since early in the winter, but had only been confined to his bed about three weeks previous to his death. He was in his seventy-third year. A daughter Mrs. Hilda Anderson, graduate nurse of Brooklyn, N. Y. was his devoted nurse during the last weeks of his illness.

He is survived by his sorrowing wife, one son, Joseph at home and six daughters, Sister Angela of the Ursuline order Brucells, Manitoba, Mrs. Joseph Keller and Mrs. Wm. Anderson, Brooklyn, N. Y., Mrs. Frank Killoran, Belledune and Mrs. J. Kelly, Malden, Me.

The funeral took place on Tuesday morning to St. Gabriel's Church and was very largely attended. Requiem mass was sung by Rev. Father Trudel, who also officiated at the grave. The pall bearers were Messrs Ambrose Killoran, John McDonnell, Matthew McDonnell, John Culligan, Sr., John Lawlor and Joseph Lapointe. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the community in their great loss.

The many friends of Mr. Allen Adams will regret to learn that he passed peacefully away on Thursday morning, June 18th, at his home in Matapedia. Mr. Adams was a sufferer for some years and had been a patient in the Royal Victoria Hospital for some months and all that medical aid could be done was done. Mr. Adams was a highly esteemed citizen, and of a kind loving disposition and loved by all who knew him. Besides his wife he leaves to mourn the loss of four daughters, and three sons. The daughters are Mrs. Harry Lyons, Mrs. Robt. McAllister, Mrs. Ernest Gliddden all of this town. The sons are Austin of this town, Robt. Detroit Mich., and sympathy goes out to the bereaved family in their sad loss.

NEW AUTO SERVICE STATION OPEN

With the recent addition of the Korner Auto Service Station to Campbellton's steadily growing list of business establsihments the town has the distinction of having on one of its busiest thoroughfares one of the most up-to date and best equipped auto service stations in the entire province. At this new station which was opened to the motoring public last Saturday, the modern equipment includes two 500 gallon gasoline tanks where the autoist may secure whatever brand of "juice" his motor works best with. An automatic Compressed Air Pump and an up-to-date Alemite lubricating equipment with a double elevated runway has also been installed. Free air and water are quickly supplied the patron and here he will also find a full supply of oils, greases, tire patches and other accessories. Satisfactory tire patching is done while you fill your pipe and the items of service are equally prompt and efficient. The Korner Service Station is ideally located on the corner of Water and Ritchie Streets diagonally opposite the Post Office and on such a convenient stand the new service station should draw a large patronage.

WEDDINGS

McKINNON—AIKMAN

Miss Hilda Maria Aikman of Langford, B. C., and G. M. Ross McKinnon, formerly of Oak Bay Mills, Que., were married at the bride's home on May 26th, at 8.00 p. m. by Rev. Mr. Pearson. They will reside at Point Grey, Vancouver. Their many friends wish them every happiness.

Butler-Chambers

The marriage of John William Butler of Upsalquitch and Mary Jane Chambers of Kempt Road was solemnized at St. Andrew's Manse, Campbellton, Monday evening, June 22nd, Rev. W. W. McNairn, M. A., officiating. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Butler in Restigouche and Bonaventure Counties extend hearty congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy married life.

Munro-Lingley

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Andrew's Church here yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Frances Teresa, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Lingley of this town was united in marriage to Mr. Gordon Hugh Munro of Toronto, Ont. Rev. W. W. McNairn officiated. During the signing of the register Rev. W. S. and Mrs. Godfrey sang "Love Divine."

The bride who was given in marriage by her father looked charming in an ensemble suit of blonde crepe romaine with old lace and platinum fox fur and hat to match. She carried a shower boquet of Ophelia roses and sweet peas. Miss Ethel Gordon Lingley, sister of the bride, who acted as bride's maid wore a frock of ecru lace over rose satin with leghorn hat. She carried tea roses and lilies of the valley. Dr. Harry C. Curtis, of Hamilton, Bermuda, was best man. Messrs. G. Alden Mowat and Aubrey F. Graham of Campbellton acted as ushers. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Munro left by motor for Toronto where they will reside at 170 St. Clair Ave., E. They take with them the best wishes of a host of friends.

Wetmore-Cook

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Reid McMillan was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday afternoon at three o'clock when Miss Maurine Galbraith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Cook of Charlo, was united in marriage to Mr. James Shirley Wetmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. P. Wetmore of this town. The bride looked charming in a gown of orchid georgette over pink satin with silver lace trimmings and picture hat to correspond and carried a shower bouquet of ophelia roses and sweet peas. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. W. McNairn. Mrs. Fred Campbell played the wedding march from Lohengrin, while the bridal party took their places under an arch of white lilacs and fern After the ceremony a quiet luncheon was served. The color scheme in the dining room was yellow and white.

The happy couple left by car for St. John where they will leave by boat for a honeymoon trip to Boston and other American cities. The brides' travelling costume was an ensemble suit of rust brocaded satin with hat to correspond. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Wetmore will reside in Campbellton.

The out--of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cook, Charlo; Mrs. Murray Nichol, New Mills; and Mrs. Harold Conrad, New Richmond.

Kean-George.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Peter's church Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock when Rev. J. A. Cloran, C. SS. I., rector, celebrated nuptial mass and solemnized the marriage of Miss Helen Veronica, daughter of Mrs. James George and the late James George, to James Chipman Kean, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kean, of Campbellton. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, James Hanlon, looked very charming in a powder blue satin faced crepe gown with platinum fox fur, grey taffeta fast was served at the home of the bride's mother. Going away, the bride wore an ensemble costume of papoose [illegible] and Canton crepe, with hat, shoes and stockings to match. Mr. and Mrs. Kean left for Montreal, Detroit an Toronto. In their return they will reside in Campbellton, where the groom is employed with the C. N. R.

Gloria Swanson hat with coral facing, silver shoes and stockings and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Evelyn George, who looked very pretty in a dress of grey satin faced crepe with American beauty hat and carried a bouquet of rose carnations.

The groom was supported by his brother, Evan Kean, who came to the city for the wedding. Miss Lydia McClusnod's "Ave Maria" and Mrs. M. A. [illegible] played beautiful wedding music during the ceremony. After the ceremony a wedding break-
