MOTHER'S DAY WILL BE OBSERVED

Appropriate Services Will be Held in Local Churches—Its Founder and Origin.

Throughout Canada and the United States and in several other countries where the "mother-power" in the great human family has been recognized, last Sunday, May 13, will be observed as Mother's Day. The celebration of the second Sunday in May as "Mother's Day" originated through the efforts of Miss Anna Jarvis of Philadelphia. Her own mother died in 1905 and she resolved that she would each year observe the anniversary of her death. Then it occurred to her that others might feel the same if the suggestion was made and she wrote to clergymen, editors and others, many of whom promised assistance.

The second Sunday in May was chosen for the observance and it was urged that on that day all persons should show their love and respect for their mothers by some tribute. If living, by a gift or letter; if dead, by some kind deed to another person. The founder also selected the white carnation as an emblem of the day because "its whiteness stands for purity, its form for beauty, its fragrance for love, its wide field of growth for charity." The white carnation is worn if one's mother has departed this life, and a pink one if she has still been spared to you.

The popularity of the movement started by Miss Jarvis is shown by the rapid growth and spread of the observance of Mother's Day. In 1903, only three years after the idea was conceived, the day was observed in forty-four states; and today the observance is general throughout the entire republic and Canada, and is rapidly becoming popular in Great Britain, China, Africa, Japan, etc.

So if you are fortunate enough to have your mother still with you send her a bouquet of flowers or a nice plant in bloom. She will not always be with you and will appreciate a bouquet more now than a wreath after she has gone.

If Mother lives wear flowers bright. If dead, flowers white—in her memory. In the local churches special services will be held.

A SAD BEREAVEMENT.

Mr. J. E. Michaud and Mrs. Michaud of Edmundston, are receiving the sincere sympathy of their many friends on the death of their little daughter, Jacqueline, which occurred Tuesday last. The little child was about a year old and had been ill for some time, complications developing which caused her death on Tuesday.

HOLDING SERVICES AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Mr. and Mrs. Gipsy Hawkins and Miss Gould Are Drawing Big Crowds.

Campbellton is at present greatly favored by a two weeks visit from the well-known evangelist Gipsy John Hawkins, accompanied by Mrs. Hawkins and Miss Wilfred Gould (Gipsy's sister), who are at present touring the Maritime Provinces, having travelled from Springfield, N. S., on Saturday last, and the Baptist Church over the week end has been the centre of large attendance and considerable interest.

At the opening service on Sunday morning, after the pastor, Rev. Wellington Camp, M. A., had warmly welcomed the evangelistic party, Gipsy Hawkins gave an earnest address on Christian service, its privileges and responsibilities, and urged all Christians to take up some definite work for their Lord, and to seek by every means in their power to lead others to Him during days of the mission.

The choir, under the leadership of Mr. Henry Currie, rendered the anthem "In Heavenly Love Abiding" and Miss Gould sang the solo "Count on Him," the congregation taking up the chorus. In the afternoon a happy time was spent in the Sunday School when Miss Gould taught the scholars an attractive Action Chorus, and the evangelist narrated some of his thrilling experiences.

The church was packed for the evening service when Gipsy Hawkins commenced a series of three special addresses on "The Cross, its meaning and its message." During the course of his powerful address he urged these present not to rest contented with the knowledge that Christ had saved their relatives and friends, but to actively evangelize from the heart "He saved me." The choir gave a fine rendering of the anthem "Make a Joyful Noise" and Miss Gould sang appropriate Gospel solos.

On Monday evening a large and interested audience gathered for the first part of the Lantern Lecture "My Evangelistic Tours round the World." Gipsy Hawkins has travelled widely and actively in his capacity of evangelist and has preached to men with skins of red and yellow, black and white, while he has met striking incidents, personal experiences and information to convey concerning each picture shown. On Monday the lecture was conducted in the evening through Canada and France, leaving six other beautiful pictures to be visited on Monday night.

On Friday Gipsy Hawkins will give Part I. of his Life Story to Gipsy Boy to Preacher or from Shoelack Box to Pupils. This is a narrative of thrilling and absorbing interest, and it has often been difficult in other cities to find accommodation for all those wishing to hear it.

GOVERNMENT MET YESTERDAY

After Postponement Because of Floods—Flood Conditions.

Fredericton, May 8.—In addition to the emergency situation which has been created by the floods of the last week there is a heavy schedule of business for the Provincial Government meeting which opens tomorrow with all the matters which have been standing in abeyance during and since the session of the Legislature to be dealt with.

The Public Utilities Commission has been without a chairman since A. B. Connell, K. C., of Woodstock, was not reappointed following completion of his term several months ago.

Mr. A. F. Bentley, M. P. P., resigned to contest St. John county, the Board of Liquor Commissioners has been one short in number.

Service Resumed.

Fredericton, May 8.—The Canadian National Railway resumed service on the Fredericton-Woodstock section of the St. John & Quebec Railway this morning when a train was sent from this city to Woodstock. It will return on Wednesday. After today a regular train service will be inaugurated between Fredericton and Woodstock, the train leaving Fredericton in the afternoon and Woodstock early in the morning.

The service as it existed prior to the floods, cannot be resumed until after repairs are made to the lower section of the line between Fredericton and Woodstock.

Water Reported Falling.

Reports today indicate that the water is falling on the lower river. Work trains are busy. It is estimated that it will require a week to get through.

It is expected that the Newcastle-Fredericton sub-division will be re-opened sufficiently by Wednesday for a train to get through from one end of the sub-division to the other. The work train from South Devon has passed the bridge across the Nashwaak River and is working several miles above that.

The St. John river at this place is falling at a rate of about eight inches a day.

Road Engineers at Work.

More road engineers went out last evening and today to supervise repair work in various sections of the province. Chief Highway Engineer Hill is today between Woodstock and Fredericton.

SUMMER SERVICE TO BOSTON

Eastern Steamship Co. Resumes St. John-Boston Service May 23rd.

The resumption of service of the Eastern Steamship Co. between St. John and Boston on May 23rd marks the opening of the service for the summer season for both passengers and freight.

The passenger service is particularly attractive and the outlook for summer tourist travel indicates that it will be unusually heavy during the coming season.

The Steamship GOVERNOR DING-LEY will perform the service and will leave St. John every Wednesday. Trips will be via Eastport and Lubec. While the Saturday evening trips will be to Boston direct. The steamer has been thoroughly over-hauled and being equipped with oil for fuel renders the passage from St. John to Boston one of pleasure, the annoyance from cinders being entirely removed.

For the expeditious transportation and handling of freight the International Line will render the best possible service to Boston, where connection is made with Metropolitan Line express freight and passenger steamers for New York and points south and east. This line also has special facilities for the transportation of automobiles, horses and express freight.

Boston is a wonderfully attractive city with its beautiful parks and public buildings and during the summer season points of interest may be visited by automobile or trolley, such as Harvard College Cambridge, Concord, Lexington, Salem, Marblehead and Plymouth, Revere and Nantasket beaches are within a short distance from Boston and are the most attractive summer resorts on the New England Coast. There are also harbor and bay trips to Plymouth and Provincetown.

There is significance in the signs which are appearing that the Socialist theory—in other countries are losing sympathy with the followers of Communism in Russia. The French Socialist party is reported to have withdrawn from all common action with the Bolshevik group. The rift in solidarity with comrades outside of Russia strongly suggests that the comrades within Russia are beginning to lose step with one another.
