To the Globe Your course more than anythe more than a the lowest ever known to Canadian jour Do you think you can ever become a again? Your treatment of political has been mean, unfair, dishonest, and dis graceful.

To Sir Charles Tupper

You have shown your old strength and yo wonderful power for work and organization. For have effectually scotched the snake of on and have again constituted yourse Sir John's right hand man.

To a Beautiful Young Man. Though as beautiful as Alcibiades, and pos-essed of wavy locks that are almost hyacinthine, nd a voice that is the envy of all you, Georg Tait Blackstock, have not yet got into the House. But you will reach that happy haven n time. The gods will yet rain a sho ccess on your head.

To Old Aleck. East York has done its duty in sending you back. Every old member, irrespective of politics, will be glad to see you in the House.

To D'Alton McCarthy. North Sin have stood by Sir John. Did you ever try on

To John Carling.

You had a narrow escape, but you are still in the House.

To the Math. The World is afraid that you have put your foot in it badly, that Conservatives will boy-cott you, and that Sir John will say he did a would never pay to make provision for it.
