reason to believe that the work will be carried on with spirit this season. Mr. Boyd's unfinished advocacy of the Railroad in the Assembly, and Dr. Thompson's efforts to promote the undertaking, entitle these gentlemen to the thanks of their constituents.

Inquest.—An inquest was held on Friday last by Dr. Cove, coroner, on the body of Capt. Isaac Partridge, of Calais, Me., which was picked up floating over the "graveyard" of about in the Bay, and a verdict returned of "found drowned."

Several articles have been crowded out of the present number, will be inserted in our next.

DIED.—On 17th inst., Mr. William Little, aged 19 years, youngest son of the late Mr. John Little of this place.

At St. Stephen, on the 14th inst., Rebecca, wife of Mr. Robert Kerr, aged 25 years, and second daughter of William Campbell, Esq., of that place, leaving an affectionate husband and a large circle of friends and relations to lament their bereavement.

A CARD.

THE Canadian School of St. Andrews, under the superintendence of Mr. McGarrigle, has just been reopened for the reception of pupils.

Having recently attended from the Model and Training School at Fredericton a "first class teacher," Mr. McGarrigle, intends to give instruction in several branches which have not been heretofore taught in the School, and he desires himself that his instruction shall not be inferior to any in the town.

In addition to the branches of English education, the course of instruction will embrace the Latin, Greek, and French languages, lessons in History & Geography, and every Wednesday to those who may feel disposed to acquire a knowledge of these beautiful arts.

Terms moderate.
