

TESTIMONY, & C. :—(Continued.)

Vinton: Buildings inside Stockade put at $350,000 in 1849, exclusive of mills, &c., p. 72.

Sheridan and Belden, p. 72.

Brooke: Ignores title of Company, p. 73.

Evidence as to Buildings unimportant; Value of lumber in 1849; Rent of Buildings, A 6, p. 73-74. Rent of Saw-mill, A 7; Estimates of lands, p. 74-5. Price of hay; confirms extent of Company's claim, p. 75.

Alvord: Estimate of Buildings made without knowledge, p. 75-76.

Ankeney: Estimates of Land at Vancouver, p. 76-77.

Unreliability of his evidence.

Evidence as to Fort Hall, Boisé and Walla-Walla p. 77.

Douthet: Character of his testimony, p. 77-78.

Estimates of Town lots and lands, p. 78-79.

Produce and value of hay on Ryan claim, p. 79.

Buck: Value of Buildings at Vancouver and Champoege, p. 79.

Buildings at latter $3,000; Evidence unreliable, p. 80.

Love: Evidence of no value, p. 80-81.

His estimates of Lands, p. 81-82.

Pleasanton: Buildings; Abandonment of Vancouver, p. 82.

His hostility to Company, p. 82.

Gen. Harney acted under instructions from Washington, p. 83.

REPORTS OF MILITARY BOARDS:

Two in 1860, and one in 1854, p. 83-84.

Remarks on p. 84.

Wilkes: Character of Evidence, p. 85.

Astoria, p. 86.

Description of Vancouver, Stock at, Mills, &c., taken from his Narrative, p. 85-86.

Proves Possessions of the Company, p. 87.

Estimate of Buildings and Mills, p. 87.

Estimate of and of Land inconsistent with Narrative, p. 87-88.