BRETON ONT., MAY 1, 1893.

WHOLE No. 335.

The Porter Spring Bee Escape

Was awarded THREE PRIZES at the Toronto Industrial Exposition in 1891. Wm. McEvoy, Foul Brood Inspector, Woodburn, Ont., says of them on Jan'y 29th, '92:—"I know from experience it won't pay any beekeeper to do without them, as they are one of the best things ever brought into any apiary, and should be used in every bee yard in the whole wide world."

F. A. Gemmill, Stratford, Ont.:—"I have used many kinds of escapes for years past, but like yours best of all."

Prof. Cook:—"No bee-keeper can afford to be without them."

Send for testimonials and read what others say about them.

Prices:—Each, by mail, post paid, with full directions, 20c. Per dozen, $2.25.

If not found satisfactory after trial return them, and we will refund your money.
