

A Coal Fleet on the River, Pittsburgh.

His Last Day.

The Old Man.—“Well, my lad, I wish you every possible happiness, and I assure you, as a man of experience, that you will always look back upon to-day as the happiest of your life.” The Young Man.—“I am very much obliged, sir, for your good wishes, but—you are a little mistaken. It is not till to-morrow that I am to be married.” The Old Man.—“Yes, yes, I know. That's what I mean.”

Men who can do without life assurance :

1. The men who are germ proof and are beyond the reach of bacilli, bacteria and microbes.
2. The men who have no one on earth to live for, have no business, no profession, and no future.—Exchange.
