CHICAGO MARKET.

PROVISIONS OPENED EASIER — GOOD BUYING LATER — CHICAGO PRICES FAR BELOW PARITY

Chicago, Jan. 13.

Closing prices for wheat at Liverpool stood ⅛ above previous closings, but as compared with closings of a week ago there is a drop of 1d. Prices were 5-9⅛ for both March and May wheat. The equivalent price of a bushel of wheat on this side is 83 cents at which price therefore wheat should be quoted at Chicago. The Chicago market is some cents too low Allowing for transmission charge it should sell about 70c.

New York May wheat opened at 73¾. This being 10 cents lower than the equivalent of Liverpool price is a reasonable premium. Six cents of difference between New York and Chicago indicated clearly an unnatural state of matters.

Openings at Chicago were ⅛ higher all round and these openings were followed by sales that showed vigor, but business was small and variations in price did not go beyond the limit of ⅛ of a cent.

May Pork and May Ribs were also in active demand. Prices did not advance, but neither did they decline. In provisions as in grain there seemed to be little power of absorption. Country acceptances of corn were extremely light again.
