

The extracts published here have been received during the past month in bona fide letters of thanksgiving. The Editor does not vouch for anything more.

CARDINAL, ONT.—For the recovery of two little boys from diphtheria after praying to the Sacred Heart and promising to publish.

CORNWALL, ONT.—For success in business, and means to pay debts after asking these favors on the First Friday with promise to publish.

DUNDAS, ONT.—For three great favors received.

HALIFAX, N. S.—For the conversion of a son after having made the nine Fridays.

LACHINE, QUE.—Through a novena made to the Blessed Margaret Mary and a promise to publish, an improvement, which, pray God, may continue, of our mother who has been seven years ill and suffering.

LINWOOD, ONT.—Two persons give thanks to the Sacred Heart for a temporal favor obtained for each, after a novena in honor of St. Anthony, promising to give bread to the poor and to publish in the MESSENGER.

LONDON, ONT.—For two special favors through the intercession of Our Blessed Mother.

MONTREAL.—For having obtained the means of paying debts. For a grace which has been given to a young man, to be happy in his studies in Philosophy. Thanks to the Sacred Heart and St. Ignatius for a great temporal favor obtained after making a novena and promising to publish in the MESSENGER.

OSGOODE, ONT.—For the cure of a severe pain after applying the badge and prayers to the S. H. and B. V. M. For three extraordinary spiritual and two temporal favors.

OTTAWA.—For a very great spiritual favor obtained after having a Mass said in honor of the Sacred Heart, reciting the Rosary, etc. For preservation from a fire and during two severe storms.