SUPREME COURT.

Ontario.] [Dec. 9, 1895.

DOMINION GRANGE MUTUAL INS. CO. v. BRADT.

Insurance against fire—Mutual Ins. Co.—Contract—Termination—Notice—Statutory conditions—R.S.O. (1887), c. 167—Waiver—Estoppel.

B. applied to a mutual company for insurance on his property for four years, giving an undertaking to pay the amounts required from time to time, and a four months' note for the first premium. He received a receipt beginning as follows: "Received from B. an undertaking for the sum of $46.50, being the premium for an insurance to the extent of $1,500 on the property described in his application of this date," and then providing that the company could cancel the contract at any time within fifty days by notice mailed to the applicant, and that non-receipt of a policy within the fifty days, with or without notice, should be absolute evidence of rejection of the application.
