The feature of the naval stores market of late has been the strength of the market for turpentine, which shows a steady upward tendency, due to scarcity of supplies at primary points, and indications that this will continue until the next crop season continue until the next crop season compared to the compared to

Dairy Trade Notes.

Notwithstanding the fact that choice fresh made creamery butter is scarce in Montreal to-day, the price is 1½c under that of a year ago. It looks, therefore, as if creamery butter is good value at present prices.
