

EASTWARD HO!

VIA
The Picturesque Route
TO THE Maritime Provinces

For the Pleasure-Seeker, Sportsman and Invalid this Route possesses unrivalled attractions

THE chances of your holiday outing being a success will be greatly enhanced should you visit the territory on or reached by the Intercolonial Railway of Canada. It has decidedly the advantages of picturesqueness, and no other route in America presents to Tourists, Invalids, Fish and Game Sportsmen, so many unrivalled attractions. Starting from its Western terminus, Montreal, where connections are made with rail and steamer lines, the Intercolonial superbly equipped train crosses the renowned Victoria Bridge and thence on to Quebec through a romantic country, wherein are many of Nature's beauty spots, and pretty little towns, among which are St. Hilarie and St. Hyacinthe, and in quick time Levis, opposite Quebec, is reached. Here the Intercolonial commands a magnificent view of this famous old city, crowned by its historical citadel; thence the train speeding away south skirts the shore of the mighty St. Lawrence, and follows the course of the far-famed Metapedia and Restigouche Rivers, also the curves of the beautiful Baie de Chaleurs, embracing an ever changing panorama of mountain, river, lake and seashore scenery. In the provinces by the sea the Intercolonial Railway connects with all steamboat lines to Prince Edward Island, "The Garden of the Gulf of St. Lawrence," and is the "All Rail Route" to Cape Breton, the Switzerland of Canada, with its famous Bras d'Or Lakes, immortalized by Charles W. Warner, in his "Baddeck and that Sort of Thing," and is the only "All Rail Route" between the cities of St. John, N.B., and Halifax, N.S.

This Railway furnishes to the general traveller all the comforts and conveniences of modern invention, while the pleasure-seeker, angler and sportsman find few, if any, equals in the numerous summer resorts and places of interest which it reaches. The hotels are comfortable and home-like, and the rates exceedingly low. Special low fares afford the visitor an opportunity of making an unusually interesting trip at a very small cost.

There is no space here even to hint at the wealth of scenic, sporting and sanitary advantages which are thus brought near to the thousands sweltering in great cities. To really appreciate what the Intercolonial means you have but to try such a vacation as is described. It is the all Canadian Route, connecting Montreal, Quebec, St. John and Halifax and the Grand Scenic Route between the Upper and Lower Provinces.
