The Educational Journal Teachers' Bureau

IMPORTANT NOTICE! BE SURE TO READ IT!

HAVING at length surmounted the initial difficulties connected with the organization of our proposed Agency or Bureau for the mutual benefit of School Boards, Principals, and all others requiring Teachers of any grade, on the one hand, and of Teachers and all others seeking situations, on the other, we now respectfully invite Boards of Public and High Schools, Governors, Principals, and Managers of Colleges and Private and Proprietary Schools, and all others who are responsible for the choice and appointment of Teachers of any grade, to communicate with us, at the earliest possible date, giving us full particulars with respect to any vacant positions, their duties, the qualifications needed, salary offered, etc.

The cost to the Boards, etc., thus furnishing us with information will be nothing, and we hope to be able in very many cases to render valuable service, by putting them in communication with the most eligible applicants. We shall spare no pains in obtaining the fullest and most reliable information in our power in regard to the characters, qualifications, previous records, and so forth, of all applicants, and will in our own interests, as well as in that of all other parties concerned, use our very best care and judgment in making recommendations.

We also respectfully invite Teachers of all grades, from Public School to University, who may be seeking situations, whether they are for the time being unemployed, or are desirous of bettering present situations, to communicate with us.

If further information is desired, write to the address given below, enclosing a one-cent stamp, and by return mail will be sent you circulars containing full information on all points connected with the operations of the Bureau. Address,

AGENTS' DOMINION SUPPLY CO., TORONTO, Ont.

The Century Magazine celebrates its quarter-centennial in its November issue with an "Anniversary Number." In honor of the occasion it dons a new dress of type, with new headings, etc., and it appears in a new and artistic cover. Although The Century has reached an age that is unusual among American magazines, it continues to show the youthful vigor and enterprise that have always characterized it. The programme that has been arranged for the coming year contains a number of interesting features.

"We did not have a single Dollar's worth of Real Estate on our hands,

Or a single Dollar of Interest in Arrears."

The foregoing was the pleasing and important statement contained in the Annual Report of

The Temperance and General Life Assurance Company for the year ending Dec. 31st, 1894.

It is but a sample of the many excellent features contained in this most satisfactory report, which, with a copy of the Company's paper, entitled "Our Advocate," is being sent to all applicants.

Correspondence Solicited.

HON. G. W. ROSS, PRESIDENT. H. SUTHERLAND, MANAGER.

Much has already been written concerning Mrs. Humphry Ward's new novel, "Sir George Tressady," which has been secured for its pages. There was a very spirited bidding for this novel on the part of several prominent publishers, with the result that the author will probably realize from the serial and book rights of it one of the largest sums that have yet been given for a work of fiction in the English language. The story describes life in an English country-house, and also touches somewhat upon industrial questions. It begins in the November number with an account of an English parliamentary election. It will be the leading feature in fiction for the coming twelve months, other and shorter novels being contributed by W. D. Howells, F. Hopkinson Smith, Mary Hallock Foote, and Amelia E. Barr. There will also be contributions from Mark Twain and Rudyard Kipling (the latter furnishing to the Christmas Century one of the most powerful stories he has ever written); a series of articles on the great naval engagements of Nelson, by Captain Alfred T. Mahan, author of "Influence of Sea Power upon History"; three brilliant articles on Rome, contributed by Marion Crawford, and superbly illustrated by Castaigne, who made the famous World's Fair pictures in The Century; a series of articles by George Kennan, author of "Siberia and the Exile System," on the Mountains and the Mountaineers of the Eastern Caucasus, describing a little-known people; articles by Henry M. Stanley and the late E. J. Glave on Africa; a series of papers on "The Administration of the Cities of the United States," by Dr. Albert Shaw. The Century will also contain during the year a great number of papers on art subjects, richly illustrated. Prof. Sloane's "Life of Napoleon," with its most interesting illustration, will reach its most interesting part—the rise of the conqueror to the height of his power, and his final overthrow and exile. In order that new subscribers may obtain the whole of this monumental work, the publishers have made a rate of $5.00, for which one can have a year's subscription from November, 1895, and all of the numbers for the past twelve months, from the beginning of Prof. Sloane's history.
