 Servandura a approvinte do estado en la ciencia de la laboración de la compositor de la compositor de servado

tific battery that Lord Raglan-worthy pupil of the great master of war! - pui Menschikoff to flight, and thereby laid Sebastopol at his feet; but it was by personally leading his troops through a hurricane of shot and shell, up to the very muzzles of long brass 32pounders, backed by clouds of riflemen, that the British general in the Crimea won his share of that glorious day's laurels. The danger was to be encountered and overcome; the mighty cause—one of national life and death—demanded the ontlay of welltimed daring on the part of the English commander, and, choice as were his battalions—quite as much so as anything of wood kept so carefully out of harm's way in the Baltic-they were devoted without hesitatian to the perilous duty that called them."

THE LADY PHILANTHROPIST .- Mrs. Ames was sitting in her front room, when she saw approaching Mrs. Armstrong, a very public spirited lady who took a wonderful interest in all reforms, and benevolent enterprises, especially those undertaken for people at

My dear Mrs. Ames,' she commenced, 'I am the agent of a sewing circle just established, the object of which is to provide suitable clothing for the children in. Patagonia. I am told that they are in the habit of going about in a state of nature, which you know is dreadful to contemplate.

Perhaps they are used to it.

KSP POLICE LAND

But that is no reason why we shouldn't improve their condition. So we have agreed to hold a meeting two evenings in a week, with this object in view .-Will you join ?'

11 am afraid I can't. I should be obliged to neglect my own children, as I presume will be the case with some of those who attend. Look, for example. at that boy in the street. He has a hole in each elbow. and his clothes are covered with mud. I presume his mother belongs to some of those benevolent associations, and hasn't time to attend to her own child-

'Mrs. Ames?' asked her visator, rising with indignation, 'do you mean to insult me!'

'Insult you!' was the astonished reply; of course not. What makes you think so!

Do you know who that boy is, of whom you speak!

'No I don't but should like to.'

'You would! Well, ma'm, your curiosity shall be gratified. He is my son-George Washington Jack-son Armstrong! What have you to say to that?'

'Say? why, nothing. Only it is unfortunate for the poor boy that he wasn't a Patagonian.

Mrs. Armstrong without a reply, swept out of the 100m with the majesty of a queen.

She is still canvassing for the sewing circle in behalf of the youthful Patagonians, while George Washington Jackson is permitted to roam at will through the streets, on condition that he will not venture within others, in comparison, are worthless. sight of Mrs. Ames' window.

More Light.—The Christian Inquirer contains the "Confession of Faith" of one of the new Protestant sect of "Spiritualists," who are fast developing in the Eastern States of America, the "Free Love" system: a system somewhat analogous to that which prevails amongst the Protestants of Utah. Speaking of a professor of this new Protestant doctrine, the Christian Inquirer says :-

"He believed in 'Free Love,' although he did not practice it. That is, in the right of the woman to a first and free choice of the conjugal partner; and the further right of choosing again, and again, and again, when the first choice was not approved by her experience, until the two appointed of Heaven and nature had come together for a fixed, permanent, spiritual union. The man should concede his preference, for the reason that the woman was truest to the affections. When asked how the women and children were to be provided for, in these frequent changes, he replied, that society would have to be brought round to meet the exigency; and that to this end, the whole system of reform would be carried forward at once. And when could this be effected? In about six years. As to the objections drawn from religion and morals, disposed of them by inveighing against the present cruel and unnatural laws of marriage and divorce. He was for the law of passional affinities, as more pure, healthy, and religious."

A BULL IN CHURCH.-In one of the letters printed in the autobiography of the late Rev. W. Jay, just published, he fells a story of a bull entering a church where the reverend gentleman was preaching. "The congregation was large; and just as I was concluding the sermon there was a general consternation and outcry. All was confusion, the people treading on one another, &c. It was rather dark, and the pulpit candles only were lighted. I saw something moving ap the aisle towards the vestry. It was a bull! we pre-sume driven in by pickpockets, or persons who wished to disturb us. We were talking upon the affairs of the nation, and John Bull very seasonably came in. But imagine what followed:—the bull could not be made to go backwards, nor could he be turned round: five or six persons, therefore, held him by the horns; while the clerk, as if bewitched, gave out, in order to appease the noise,-

'Praise God, from whom all blessings flow, Praise him all creatures here below, &c.

O that the bull could have roared here in compliance with the exhortation! I looked down from the pulpit, and seeing the gentlemen who held him singing with their faces lifted up, as if returning thanks for this unexpected blessing, I was obliged to put my hand before my face while I dismissed the congregation."

ELOQUENCE.—The following is extracted from a bill of sale of furniture, by an auctioneer of Keighley:-"Kitchen and scullery utensils, culinary aparatus, to which may be added all the essential articles of kitchen drudgery and every subordinate accompaniment of physical civilisation. To parties waiting for a desirable investment of capital, to others whose domestic requirements are incomplete, to the young whose matrimonial appointments have been conducted in haste, and to those Whose betrothals are about to receive ecclesiastical consummation, the above event will prove a dispensation rarely witnessed in ancient or modern times."

According to DeBow's Review, the total population of the Island of Cuba is about 1,000,000, viz: whites 550,988; free colored 176,647; slaves 330,429.

LOYALTY OF THE IRISH CHARACTER.—It is a fact deserving of record, that the greater part of the British force engaged in the storming of the heights of the Alma-one of the most desperate of modern military achievements-were natives of the Emerald Isle. Although England has always treated her Celtic subjects like a harsh stepmother, she is compelled to rely up on them in the hour of danger .- N. Y. Herald.

LAWYERS, PREACHERS, CRIMINALS AND DOGS. - Some ngenious Yankee has been calculating the sums of money spent upon lawyers, criminals, dogs and preachers, in the United States, and proves beyond all question that he lives in a great country. The following is the result of the calculation:—"It cost thirty-five millions of dollars to pay the salaries of American lawyers; twelve millions of dollars are paid out annually to keep our criminals; and ten millions of dollars to keep the dogs among us alive; while only six millions of dollars are spent annually to keep the sixteen thousand preachers in the United States."

Nanoleon Roussell, a French Protestant missionary, and a "shining light" in the conventicle, has lately published a Tract on the Blessed Virgin, in which he gives it as his opinion that "so far from being a virgin, most pure and beautiful, she was an old-weather-beaten marned woman."

"It is quite too bad of ye, Darby, to say that your wife is worse than the devil." "An't plaze your rivirence, I can prove it by the Holy Scriptures-I can. be the powers! Ditn't your rivirence, in the sarmon yesterday, tell us that if we resist the devil, he'd flee from us! Now, if I resist my wife, she flies at me!"

ANOTHER INSTANCE OF TAPE WORM CURED BY THE USE OF

DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE. New York, October 15, 1852.

This is to certify that I was troubled with a tape worm for more than six months. I tried all the known remedies for this dreadful affliction, but without being able to destroy it. I got one of Dr. M'Lane's Almanacs, which contained notice of several wonderful cures that had been performed by his celebrated Vermifuge. I resolved to try it; and immediately purchased a bottle, which I took according to directions; and the result was, I discharged one large tape worm, measuring more than a yard, besides a number of small ones.

MRS. M. SCOTT, No. 70 Cannon street. P. S. Dr. M'Lane's celebrated Vermifuge, also his Liver Pills can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in this city.

Purchasers will please be careful to ask for, and take none but DR. M'LANE'S VERMIFUGE. All
