

the Canada Pension Plan, exclusively on the basis of the pensionable earnings credited under that legislation.

(b) The amount of the flat-rate portion of the benefit payable under the provisions of this Agreement shall, in this case, be determined by multiplying:

(i) the amount of the flat-rate portion of the benefit determined under the provisions of the Canada Pension Plan

by

(ii) the ratio that the periods of contributions to the Canada Pension Plan represent in relation to the minimum qualifying period for entitlement to that benefit under the Canada Pension Plan.

2. No benefit shall, however, be paid under this Article unless the contributor has reached an age at which his or her contributory period, as defined in the Canada Pension Plan, is at least equal to the minimum qualifying period under the legislation of Canada for entitlement to the benefit in question.

CHAPTER 2

BENEFITS PAYABLE BY DENMARK

ARTICLE X

1. A Canadian citizen shall be entitled to an anticipatory pension if, during the qualifying period prescribed in the Social Pensions Act, the person concerned has been physically and mentally capable of carrying on a normal occupation for a continuous period of not less than 12 months while residing in the territory of Denmark.

2. In addition to the condition specified in paragraph 1 of this Article, entitlement to an anticipatory pension granted for social reasons in respect of a Canadian citizen shall be subject to the further condition that the person concerned has been permanently resident in the territory of Denmark for not less than 12 months immediately before the submission of the claim for a pension and that the need for that pension arose while that person was resident in the territory of Denmark.

3. Notwithstanding Article IV of this Agreement, a Danish citizen resident in the territory of Canada shall not be entitled to the award of an anticipatory pension granted for social reasons.

ARTICLE XI

1. Subject to the provisions of Article X, a pension under the Social Pensions Act shall be payable to a Canadian citizen resident in the territory of Canada only if the person concerned has been employed or self-employed in the territory of
