

(2) The competent authority that has executed a request for search and seizure shall provide such information as may be required by the Requesting State concerning, but not limited to, the identity, condition, integrity and continuity of possession of the documents, records or things seized and the circumstances of the seizure.

(3) The Requested State may require that the Requesting State agree to terms and conditions to protect third party interests in the item to be transferred.

(4) The Requesting State shall observe any conditions imposed by the Requested State in relation to any seized documents, records or things which may be delivered to the Requesting State.

ARTICLE 10

TRANSFER OF PERSONS IN CUSTODY

(1) A person in custody in the Requested State shall, at the request of the Requesting State, be temporarily transferred to the Requesting State to assist investigations or to give evidence in proceedings provided both the person and the Requested State consent to the transfer.

(2) The Requesting State shall return the person transferred to the custody of the Requested State as soon as circumstances permit or as otherwise agreed by them.
