

(2) Expenses incurred in the jurisdiction of the requested Party arising from the request or by reason of surrender shall be borne by that Party. If it becomes apparent that expenses of an extraordinary nature are likely to be incurred, the Parties shall consult to determine how these expenses shall be met.

ARTICLE 14

Basis for Surrender

A fugitive offender shall be surrendered only if the evidence be found sufficient according to the law of the requested Party either to justify the committal for trial of the person sought if the conduct constituting the offence of which that person is accused had occurred in the territory of the requested Party or to prove that the person sought is the person convicted by the courts of the requesting Party.

ARTICLE 15

Arrangements for Surrender

(1) The requested Party shall, as soon as a decision on the request for surrender has been made, communicate that decision to the requesting Party. Reasons shall be given for any complete or partial refusal of a request for surrender.
