

H7. What are the roles of the provinces and territories?

While mining, the most implicated industry for CTBT reporting purposes, is a provincial responsibility, the reporting requirements do not interfere with or contradict provincial jurisdiction in this area. The National Authority has consulted with relevant provinces and territories and will continue to work closely with them to ensure that the smooth working relationship continues.