

have? If you are trusting Him, He knows and approves the faith which He hath given you. If you are striving in the midst of difficulty and opposition to do His will, He will be with you, to succour, and comfort and guide you. Some of you may attain to places of honour and usefulness and influence among your fellow-men, if God is pleased to spare you. But the portion which you will find the best, and most consoling and satisfying at all times, is that of God in Jesus Christ, as your Father and Friend, to feel that He is yours, and that you are under His omniscient eye, doing His will, and working His work, and striving to do good to all around you. Jesus says for your encouragement: "If any man serve me, let him follow me. And where I am, there shall also my servant be. If any man serve me, him will My Father honour."

That this may be the experience of all of you is the earnest prayer of,

My dear young Friends,

Your very affectionate Pastor,

ALEXANDER TOPP.
