A young lady, well-known in Toronto, but who does not wish her name to be published, writes as follows :

Messrs. T. MILBURN & CO., Toronto, Ont.

Dear Sirs,—“I have great pleasure in recommending your MILBURN'S RHEUMATIC PILLS. Some time ago I had Rheumatism in my knees so badly that I could not ride my bicycle until I used your pills. Three boxes made a complete cure, and I heartily endorse their virtues as a specific cure for all rheumatic troubles.”
