Flood Damage Report Caused Short-Lived Raly at Opening.

CHICAGO, March 29 .- Stronger cables and fears of considerable damage to wheat in the Ohio Valley flood belt caused firm opening today, but under local elling prices receded. The start was a shade to be higher. May was up the to the Union Yards, comprising 614 cattle, Advent or springlike conditions apparhorses.

ntly did not nave much effect on corn. ppening at 58c to so'st, an advance of Outs tarked that, and may a stade to Building, report the following prices on the Chicago Board of Trade:

ST. LAWRENCE MARKET.

Receipts of farm produce, owing to impassable roads in the county, were taken to grain or hay, and only about thenty buggines and into wagons in the north opining, containing indeed produce; but there was a large basket marked, eggs and butter being prenchul, but pounty very scarce, and what ness there was generany of interior quality. The poultry prices were never higher in many years, in ever, on the Toronco market.

Butter—receipts there and prices steady, at soc to soc per ion, the bunk going at 32c to 35c.

Eggs—These Wore the cheapest food on the market. These ranged from soc to 30c, the bunk saming at about an average of 25c, atmo many lots sold for less, and at the close of the market soc was the ruling price. The eggs sold at 30c were to special customers for invalid purposes.

Pountry—Turkeys, 26c to 30c; chickers, and the loads of the market soc was the ruling price. The eggs sold at 30c were to special customers for invalid purposes.

ountry-Turkeys, 26c to 30c; chickens, per 10.; checks, cold storage, son at 25c per 10.; old nens, 1at, 10. boiling purposes, sold at 20c per 10.

Potatoes—Prices ranged at from 35c to ly inc common grades. Choice winter appear are really scarce, and No. 1 Spies would bring $4 to $4.26. Other varieties soid at from $2.26 to $3.50 per barrel.

Dressed nogs—Frices ranged at from $12.16 for heavy to $13.25 and even $13.50 was paid for one lot of five choice but cher nogs.

Market Notes.

George Puddy, St. Lawrence Market, opped the market on Saturday for five holee light hogs, at $13.50. bealers on the st. Lawrence Market were complaining about some people being allowed to assort all the reluse of the market on Friday evening, and then leave the garbage on a heap in the market until after the opening of the market on Saturday. This is very offensive to the patrons of the market, and in the interest of good market accommunications.

LIVERPOOL, March 29.—The market opened, with covering in March, unchanged to ¼d higher, and, following the opening, there was a further advance in March of %d, with the distant months ¼d higher, in sympathy. Expeciations of lighter American shipments this week to Liverpool, firmer cargo offerings, continued unfavorable reports from Russia and a report circulated here of sales of Plate wheat yesterday to Odessa, was the cause of the tightness of offers. Plate helders are firmer, and the continent is bidding more freely for Argentine cargaes on passage. At the close the market was firm, with March ¾d higher than yesterday, and otherwise prices ¼d higher. Corn opened unchanged, and later the American grade advanced 1/2d. The market was dull, but steady, with Plate neglected, and American supported on the firmer American offers, and in sympathy with wheat
