

NEWS OF THE PROVINCE.

Shipment of Salted Fraser River Sockeyes to Be Sent to Scotland.

Locked Up for Jeering at the Military-Mining Matters at Union.

(Special to the Colonist.)

VANCOUVER.
VANCOUVER, Oct. 7.—J. Keith is back from his trip to England.

The Women's Temperance Union met yesterday and ordered a large quantity of unfurnished wine, which they will supply gratuitously to churches.

At a meeting of the Young Men's Institute, to-day, it was decided to erect a handsome frame building at a cost of $4,000.

Charles, a Chinaman, accused of violation of the market law, was discharged.

Water will be turned on at the Prince Albert flat hydraulic claim next Saturday.

Stockholders anticipate good results.

Mr. G. R. Major took a trip through the Okanagan country buying hops for his packing business. He only succeeded in procuring 300.

Messrs. H. J. Blaine & Co. have assigned to Sheriff Hall.

C. Edwards, of the Manor House, has assigned to Capt. Scott, of Scott & Hughes. The house will be kept open.

Courts Beaver, Pacific and Pacific Belle Circle, Foresters, are preparing for entertainments.

Carroll M. Sweeney, mixed up in the misappropriation of city moneys at Port Townsend, has been living in Vancouver for some time. Others making capital out of his absence are said to be more guilty than he.

He was promised lenient treatment if he turned State's evidence. He promised to do so, and returned to Port Townsend to-day.

A union meeting of the members of the Y.M.C.A. will be held in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church on Sunday evening, at 8 o'clock, Mr. J. M. Browning presiding.

A society of Friends has been organized in Vancouver, with considerable following. They will hold service in the Yavalley block, Granville street, every Sunday, at 11 o'clock.

A fair audience listened to the Spanish Students at the Opera house last night. The entertainment was excellent, Sig. R. Rebagliatti's violin solos are far above the average, and the singing very good.

The Right Rev. Monsignor Duran, D.D., Catholic Bishop of New Westminster, just returned from Rome, visited his "children of the mission" across the inlet last evening. The Indians turned out in their canoes in large force, headed by their band, and salutes were fired during the enthusiastic reception of their spiritual father.

A ladies' Orange lodge, The Pioneer, was organized in Vancouver on Thursday. The following are the officers: Mrs. J. Johnston, worthy mistress; Mrs. R. J. Johnston, D.M.; Mrs. A. McLean, chaplain; Mrs. P. G. Wilson, recording secretary; Mrs. R. Bell, financial secretary; Mrs. D. C. Craig, treasurer; Mrs. G. W. Hinch, D.M.; Mrs. Wm. Bruce, Lect.; Mrs. Hanna, 1st Com.; Miss Baker, 2nd; Mrs. J. C. Douglas, 3rd; Mrs. Johnston, 4th; Mrs. J. D. Nairne, 5th; Mrs. B. Bell, 6th; Mrs. Johnston, 7th; Mrs. Johnston, 8th; Mrs. Johnston, 9th; Mrs. Johnston, 10th; Mrs. Johnston, 11th; Mrs. Johnston, 12th.

A prominent druggist and his fiancée will be married by the registrar at the next sitting of the County court. The gentleman's convictions on religion prompt him to take this unusual course.

The last of the season's sea fleet, The Brodick Castle, arrived here yesterday.

William Greer, foreman of the C.P.R. car shops, has gone East. He will return with his bride.

M. Oatone opened the Hotel Europe by a ball last night.

Vancouver's charity ball promises to be a great success this year, owing to an energetic committee having it in hand.

Judge Bole will hold chambers on Wednesday and court on Thursday.

The four gold medals won by the Burrard Inlet rowing club at the Portland regatta have arrived. On race days the medals will adorn the breasts of A. Henderson, H. H. Watson, H. W. Kent and F. R. Russell.

The Hudson Bay wholesale warehouse plans have been filed. The structure will be 3 stories high, facing on Water street, extending to the railway track; 124 feet deep; frontage, 80 feet.

By next summer Hastings and Cordova streets, from Granville to Carroll streets, will be paved with concrete.

WESTMINSTER.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Oct. 7.—The directors of the Young Men's Christian Association have engaged Mr. A. Charnock, late of Astoria, for general secretary.

The Western Fisheries company will ship to Glasgow, Scotland, next week, 150 barrels of prime salted sockeye salmon. The fish will go over the C.P.R. to Montreal, thence by steamship.

The new pipe organ for Holy Trinity Cathedral has arrived, and will be set up immediately.

The outside demand for fresh salmon is very small at present, but the fishing companies would send a few carloads of cohoes to New York if reasonable rates could be obtained from the C.P.R. The rates demanded at present prohibit the exportation of anything but high priced fish.

Alfred Trite, manager, so-called, of the Steveston club, was brought to the city this morning to serve three months in jail for having failed to pay a fine of $200 imposed on him some time ago for an infraction of the liquor laws. Another charge of the same nature is now pending against Trite.

A local prohibition club was organized last night. The officers elected were: Peter Laskin, president; J. Beckman, vice president; Miss Williams, secretary; J. C. Smith, treasurer. These, with three other elective members, form the local executive. At an early date it is proposed to have the first meeting, when the various committees will be elected, and preparations made for the winter's campaign.

NANAIMO.

NANAIMO, Oct. 7.—Col. Peters, D.A.G., this afternoon inspected the infantry corps. The corps has been drilling regularly during the past few weeks, and presented a very creditable appearance.

A bear weighing nearly four hundred pounds was shot yesterday near Starks' rancho, Cranberry District.

A man was arrested last night for making fun of the infantry corps. The militiamen were on the march, when the individual arrested made offensive remarks. Captain Fraser ordered some of the company to seize the offender, which was done with alacrity, and the man was conducted to jail.

NANAIMO, Oct. 7.—A mass meeting of miners of the New Vancouver Colliery was held this morning in the Opera House, a large number being present. It was unanimously agreed to reorganize the miners' union, a meeting to be held next Saturday for the election of officers. A committee was appointed to take the names of all the men wishing to become members.

Sailed, bark Wilma; ship, C. F. Sargeant.

EVSON.

UNION, Oct. 5.—The contract for painting the new hotel has been let to Thos. Milne, of Nanaimo, who has also secured the contract for painting the Roy boarding house, just completed by the Colliery Company.

Simon Leiter, of Victoria, paid the town a visit last week, and reports everything highly satisfactory in his store here. He returned to the city Friday.

Pumping operations are being actively pushed forward No. 1 slope, which is expected to be freed of water at an early date. The hoisting engines and boiler have been placed in position at No. 2 slope, and a start will be made to hoist on Monday next. At No. 4 slope the output of coal has been increased, necessitating the erection of two large boilers, which will be ready in a week, when a steadier pressure of steam will be available, resulting in an additional increase in the output.

Mr. Davis, manager of Union hotel, has created a large street lamp in front of the hotel, making the third now in Union.

Mr. James Dunsen and party returned by the Juan de Fuca last, having spent an enjoyable time here.

Mr. Ed. Walter, who is engaged painting the new steamer Paloma, met with a narrow escape on Tuesday last. He was coming out of the engine room when he some mischance he stumbled and fell overboard in three fathoms of water. Despite his 60 years, "Ned" managed to crawl on board the steamer, little the worse of his cold bath.

A coffee social and entertainment was given in the Reading Room hall on Wednesday evening, under the auspices of the Methodist Ladies' Aid Society, and was perhaps the best of the kind ever given here. The programme was select and refreshments of the best. A goodly sum was realized, which will be devoted to the new church building fund.

The ship Bonch Talbot left yesterday with a cargo of coal for Honolulu. The S.S. San Mateo and U.S. steamer Mohican are now due, as is also the ship Glory of the Sea.

The patients at the hospital are progressing favorably. Mr. Abrams is much better, whilst Messrs. Hudson and Reekie are now able to get around. The injured man, G. Penella, is still confined to bed, but doing nicely under the careful treatment of Dr. Lawrence.

Union lodge, Sons of Temperance, has been re-started with a good membership.

Miss Holmes, of Victoria, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton.

VERNON.

(From the News.)

At the Government office last month twenty-eight pre-emptions were recorded, and four marriage licenses issued.

The bi-weekly mail service to White Valley, lately granted by the post office department, was commenced yesterday.

Mr. Lamb, who is not improving as fast as his friends expect, has been ordered to go to the Jubilee Hospital in Victoria, and will likely leave in a few days.

Settlers in the outlying districts complain of a dearth of sheep and horses. Further games on the part of hunters, who care for nothing but heads, and leave the carcasses to rot on the mountains. Cariboo and other deer are being shot and sold for nothing.

A bicycle club has been organized in Vernon, with a membership of ten, bearing the name the "Mountain Bicycle Club" of Vernon. Applications have been made to the Secretary of the Canadian Wheelmen's Association for affiliation with that body.

A crusade against side-saddles was recently commenced by two of the fair sex riding with a divided skirt. They pronounced the trial a success as far as controlling the horse was concerned and ease to the seat.

On Thursday evening, last week, J. M. Miller, M.A., who has had charge of the Presbyterian cause at Okanagan mission during the past few months, left Vernon for the East, where he goes to prosecute his theological studies in Queen's college, Kingston, Ont. Miss Aggie Wright, on behalf of the congregation, presented him with a handsome gold watch and chain and a purse of $25, an address being read by Mr. A. C. Buchanan.

BILLIARDS.

Roberts Still Leads in the International.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—When the international billiard game, the eighth of the series for 10,000 points between the English and American champions Roberts and Ives, started this afternoon at the Lenox Lyceum, Roberts was 615 ahead.

Robert's unfinished work of last night and ran 17 points. Ives following with a break of 12. Ives started well, but after the first break, showed up badly and failed to score in the innings. Roberts continued his wonderful work and piled up the but-tons by three. In the eighth inning Ives made 586 points. The score now stands: Ives, 6,664; Roberts, 7,200.

WITH PARALYSIS.

Germany's Iron Chancellor Stricken and in a Precarious Condition.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—The Daily Telegraph's Berlin correspondent says Prince Bismarck has suffered a stroke of paralysis, and that he is in an apathetic condition.

Later—The United Press representative here was informed that the departure of Prince Bismarck has been definitely fixed for 12.35 on Saturday afternoon. A special train will convey him direct from this place to Friedrichshagen. The Prince is better, but very weak.

PORT HOPE'S MYSTERY.

Hooper, the Dead Woman's Husband, Arrested.

PORT HOPE, Oct. 7.—(Special.)—Acting under telegraphic instructions from Provincial Detective Carpenter, of Montreal, who has been working the Hooper mystery, Chief Constable Douglas yesterday placed Hooper under arrest, and he is now in the C. P. R. jail.

Hooper's health, which had given way under the strain to which he has been subjected, is much improved, but mentally there is little improvement.

PORTLAND, Oct. 6.—Astoria dispatches report the biggest storm of the year raging off the mouth of the Columbia river yesterday. It was blowing heavily all day, and at six o'clock the wind attained a velocity of forty-eight miles an hour. During the forty-eight hours a heavy rain had been falling without cessation for a single minute. The wind blew hard in Portland and rain fell in sheets for several hours.

WELSH VOTES.

Negotiations Between Mr. Chamberlain and Certain Members for a "Non Confidence" Vote.

The Church in Wales to be Disestablished and Other Concessions Made.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—The Welsh newspaper General, organ of the Welsh nationalists, and the property of David Lloyd-George and S. T. Evans, Welsh members of Parliament, publishes to-day a curious story concerning Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain's attitude towards the Welshmen in the last Parliamentary session. Shortly after the division of the Welsh Suspensory bill, Mr. Chamberlain is supposed to have expressed his "no confidence" in the Ministry. If the vote should be successful, according to Mr. Evans' version of the message, a new Ministry would be formed, and the first important bill to be introduced by him in Parliament would be one for the disestablishment of the Church in Wales. Nothing, however, came of this bid for Welsh votes, says the General, except the great amusement of the Welsh members.

NO DELEGATES TO BE SENT.

At a Specially Called Meeting Chilliwack Delegates Not to Be Represented at the Kamloops Convention.

CHILLIWACK, Oct. 7.—(Special.)—At a meeting called to appoint delegates to the Kamloops convention the proposal was defeated by a large majority. Mr. Kitchen, M.P.P., occupied the chair. A motion was adopted to send none.

HAWAII'S FUTURE.

Questionable if the Provisional Government Will Allow a Plebiscite.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 7.—C. T. Wilder, Hawaiian consular agent at this port, says he does not believe that U.S. Minister Blount made the recommendations credited to him, and predicts that the Provisional Government will never permit a vote of the residents being taken.

MARINE MOVEMENTS.

Further Particulars of the Loss of the "Leonore"—Captain Meyer's Heroic Death.

The "Crown of England" to Become a Collier—Heavy Export Shipments From Victoria.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct, as at first announced, but bound from Iquique to Port Angeles, under order of R. D. Welsh & Co., San Francisco, for twelve instructions while in Angeles harbor from R. F. Rithel & Co., Ltd., her agents here, as to proceeding to her loading mill. The Leonore left Iquique on August 16, and had not been seen since.

The bark Leonore, whose wreck on the rocky coast of Washington was the subject of a special in yesterday's COLONIST, was not on her way to Moodyville direct