

TO THE
K I N G ' s

MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

S I R,

THE Calculations which I most humbly presume to dedicate to your Majesty, were at first intended to calm the Minds of the People of Great-Britain, by undeceiving them in regard to their Payments for Taxes, which the Rage of Party had swelled in Opinion to double the true Amount; insomuch, that during the greatest Part of the long and prosperous Reign of Your Royal Grandfather, too many of His faithful Subjects were unhappily led to a 2 believe,
