

REV. ROBERT EASTON,

REV. SIR,

AT a special meeting of the BOARD of MANAGERS of the FEMALE BENEVOLENT SOCIETY this day, it was unanimously voted to present the cordial thanks of the Society, to you Sir, for your excellent and appropriate Sermon, preached before the Members of that Institution, and to request a copy for the press.

By order,

H. W. BARRETT,

Secretary.

MONTREAL, SEPTEMBER 16th, 1816.

MRS. H. W. BARRETT, SECRETARY,

MADAM,

WHATEVER are the real merits of the discourse delivered before the Members of the FEMALE BENEVOLENT SOCIETY, I am happy at least to find that the MANAGERS of the Institution are satisfied with my feeble efforts to promote one of the best of causes. Before I received their friendly request, I had consented to the printing of the Sermon, but upon a principle which will leave the proceeds of the sale at the disposal of the Society, according to the intention of the publishers, which is highly honourable to them.

I am, Madam,

with respect yours, &c.

R. EASTON.

MONTREAL, SEPTEMBER 16th, 1816.

But he my
And J sales
his deac
And l whe
And l on l
But a whe
And
win
and
And o
gav
and repe
Which
than
And
unt

C men
life p
The